

Re: The dog from next door

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.agriculture.poultry/2004-07/0520.html>

From: Mary Fisher (mary.fisher_at_zetnet.co.uk)

Date: 07/26/04

Date: Mon, 26 Jul 2004 15:56:28 +0100

"Caesar" <caesar.of.rome@ntlworld.com> wrote in message news:WHXMc.874$Go2.702@newsfe3-gui.ntli.net...

- > Yesterday one of the dogs from next door squeezed under their fence and
- > attacked one of our five hens. Much squawking attracted my daughter who
- > witnessed the assault.
- > There are a lot of feathers missing. A bald patch, but no cuts.
- > Neighbour is penitent promising action on the fence.
- > Victim is a little timid today, but venturing around the garden still.
- > I hadn't realised quite how attached and proud we are of our family extras.
- > Each with a name and a character. They have only been with us eight weeks.
- > We have buried a number of pets over the years. Old age is one thing.
- > Death by dog quite different. Now everyone wants to talk about foxes.....
- > I have read in the book that if I go out and mark my territory.... What > will the neighbours think!

Make sure neighbour does it NOW!

My heart goes out to you ...

Mary

>
>