

Re: Advice on worming please.

Re: Advice on worming please.

---

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.agriculture.poultry/2005-07/msg00148.html>

---

- From: " Jill." <news@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: Tue, 12 Jul 2005 10:45:26 +0100
-

CaT wrote:

- > Worming poultry seems to be a nightmare with conflicting advice on
- > what to use, on-licence, off licence. eat eggs, don't eat the eggs,
- > etc etc.
- > Does anyone here have any difinitive advice on what to use.

You have not said which country you are talking about but looking at your email address

Uk == Flubenvet from the vets or from Interhatch

no complications at all – all advice is on the pack and licensed for chickens

:~)

--

regards
Jill Bowis

Pure bred utility chickens and ducks
Housing; Equipment, Books, Videos, Gifts
Herbaceous; Herb and Alpine nursery
Working Holidays in Scotland
<http://www.kintaline.co.uk>

.

-
- References:
    - ◆ Advice on worming please.
◇ From: CaT
  - Prev by Date: Advice on worming please.
  - Next by Date: Re: A FAQ
  - Previous by thread: Advice on worming please.
  - Index(es):
    - ◆ Date
    - ◆ Thread

Re: Advice on worming please.