Hi All

Many thanks for the helpful comments.

Had a fun 15 mins this morning collecting all 5 hens, one by one, and cleaning their feet, clipping feathers where necessary and oiling their legs.

Much indignity and bad language ! (I'll leave you to guess which came from where <g>)

Will repeat the treatment after 4 days, and take a look at the over-long claws then – seems to be affecting the little white feather-feet worst...

Thanks
Adrian
