Shall I take it, then, that you're opposed to some form of moderation?

I don't want your job, frankly, and it isn't because I'm arthritic.

It's because I have an unusually low tolerance for stupidity and would cut too close to the bone for most folks' liking. I would really like to be reading anthro-paleo in this group and ~cringe~ every time I see another LOONatic going on about snorkel noses, 8 mya ag, ad nauseum. Yea, I know it's a tough call but maybe we ought to at least eliminate it as a possibility. SBE is moderated, after a fashion,

Re: Absence of Canines in Apiths and they seem to be moving along at a respectable clip —and moderation can be as simple as a filter (or anything in between).

Incidentally, Lee, you can take your "Grampa" tags and shove 'em right up your ass.
