Hello I am Simon

I have just set up an archaeology forum for people like you who are interested in the subject. Unlike news groups I will never give out your email or personal information or even spam you with useless information or give you rubbish dirty links or anything that people may get offended by.

So why not join my new forum and have a look around and see if you like it its new so not many people have join as yet so now your chance to set the ball rolling.

So I hope to see you as a member of my new archaeology forum today. This is not an advert and my website www.field-archaeology.info has been used by people across the world. Now you can vote for your favourite archaeology programmes on TV.

Lets hope you will join my forum as so far a couple members have already. Thanks for your time in reading my letter. All the best from Simon
