And so on. Consistent attacks over the years on establishment oppression, on the of economic mismanagement of the Laborals, and on the plight of working Australians.

Not, as with the lunatic's effort in this thread, opportunistic attacks on just one side of politics.

Why not? You get a fair go from me. Every time you back off for a while from your mad vindictive hate campaign I leave you alone. This time, I even stopped posting the Che Guano FAQ.

Guess what, lunatic? After this, it's back on the schedule.

- > and a helping hand?

I offer help when I can, as is evidenced by my response to Izzy Baharuddin's question in his "Spam Count" thread. See message <42319B04.1E96.46E87CCD@arthur.valhalla.oz>, of 2005/03/12.

When was the last time you offered any help to a poster, lunatic?

- > Nah, not Ned, he's a prick in the pocket of the tory establishment.

More projection from the lying establishment flunky who hails as a "great humanitarian" Malcolm Fraser, the fascist pig who slandered the people of Australia with the term "dole bludger" when the country had 20 unemployed people for every job vacancy in existence.

That's just over 14 people per job vacancy. Take it up to 2.6 million, make sure they're all unemployed, call them dole bludgers, and get an accolade from Guano as a "great humanitarian".

-----false advertising and remaining lunacies, lies and slanders snipped-----
