Seppo Renfors snivelled whined and moaned, then being unable to help himself, told some more lies, invention and fabrication:

Mostly just its [usual k00ky nonsense] but some new inventions which require rebuttal.

> Oh? I have been VERY moderate indeed,

On the contrary Stalker. You have proved again and again that you are the most immoderate, lying, wannabe Nazi goon that has ever posted in Usenet.

You lie, fabricate and distort in incredible quantities, and with little, if in fact any, apparent insight into the ease with which your idiot antics are exposed for all to see.

> and provided an ongoing

> COMMUNITY SERVICE for you and others of where to reports the CRIMINAL > stalker – and YES is IS indeed criminal as the criminal stalker itself > knows – that pond scum itself has posted on that very subject with > proof of it being the case.

The only service you have provided, and continue to provide Sepsis is the Usenet equivalent of the "dune flag" fitted to vehicles in sand dune country. Although in your case, the flag reads: "Here I am, Seppo the fuckwit, seppotic Donkey, come see what new depth of idiocy, lies and "k00kery" I can plumb without even working up a sweat".

Is it a twisted need for company that drives your madness Septic?

As to the rest of your nonsense, you have been put to proof time and again to show (or even state);

What "criminal" behaviour;

What "stalking",etc.

sci.archaeology: Response to the latest stalking, lies and general shit gone by Seppo (the clown TM) Renfors.

Of course you have come up with your hands as empty as your head in this, you nasty alcoholic, vertically challenged little meat slapper haven't you....

Not of course that that a small series of facts (or large ones for that matter) places the slightest impediment to your kind of kooky madness does it?

- > It was in a melt-down long ago when the fool attempted to claim State
- > Laws apply OUTSIDE the state they are enacted in, and was thoroughly
- > spanked for the idiotic claims. It has resorted to its stalking ever
- > since.

Here is typical Sepsis "Standard Operating Procedure No. 1", accuse the other party of the very thing you do yourself....

You Dickwit Renfors, were the one that claimed that the States of Australia were not competent to pass legislation with extra-territorial effect. You were wrong then and you are still wrong.

The actual details of your "wrongness" need not be gone into here, but suffice it to say that when the "kooky" incorrectness of your position was (inevitably) driven into the peat bog you have where more normal people harbour a brain, you suffered one of your periodic meltdowns and went into Seppo-sulk mode. It is of course worth while mentioning in passing that as recently as last week I repeated my offer for you to ring the Australian University Law school of your choice and put the question to them. The fact that you continue to avoid that step is proof positive that you know you were and still are wrong, wrong, wrong, and are simply too kooky to admit it.

Picking up from that infamous loss, you then lost further engagements with both others and I, where you claimed idiot things like:

"Possession of Alcohol can never be illegal";

Had the fact that you did not (and still do not) understand the outcome of or indeed the underlying Law driving, a priority dispute between an earlier equitable and a later legal charge against land in Torrens system land title driven into your excruciatingly stupid brain;

Then you claimed to have won "magnificent" victories in the courts on firstly a defamation matter, and then over Lloyds of London in an insurance one.

Unfortunately for you, your knowledge (at the time) of operative Law was so slight you didn't know about the Australian Case Citation Service.

When the absence of any such cases in the citator was pointed out, you went very, very quiet, for along time. Then of course the claims re-surfaced, only this time you were representing someone else and did not in fact win these actions in your own name..... Needless to say, requests for the actual citations went unanswered then, and are still unanswered now;

Next Good old Sepsis you resurfaced with absurd claims involving the ACCC and EPA laws and or regulations;

Then you moved to your last major piece of k00kery, your absurd and idiotic claims as to the ability of deceased persons to own property. A belief you attempted (by sheer weight of invective and words, which should not come as a surprise to anyone) to maintain in spite of a number of people pointing out Statute Law in every State of Australia to the contrary....

In this engagement, you were partially let off the hook due to the sudden influx into both aus.legal and sci.arch of a number of improbably named sock puppets.

Then of course, there was the attempt to forge me that was caught when the person setting up to forge in fact used a "test" conference, not realising that the service they were using reflected posts made to test hierarchy newsgroups back to the "sender" by email.

It may, or may not cause you some discomfort that I currently have an action before the courts in Germany to obtain an order that the Berlin University give up the credentials of the person who was planning the forgery. It is taking time, but it will come to the top of the list in due course and once I have those details I will take whatever action I feel appropriate. These things take time, but then all ISPs have records going back years as to which account was issued a particular IP on any given day, so time is not particularly of the essence.

In each of above "engagements" when cornered you indulged in every single trick of improper debate that you have ever learned and stored in your obnoxious psyche, including abuse, false accusations, invention and outright lies.....

These are all matters of fact, that any person can confirm for themselves in 30 minutes or less via Google. No matter how much you wriggle, twist and turn Feldwebel, you cannot change FACT.

At some point around the second last of the "seppo tripe" incidents outlined above, you commenced stalking me.

Firstly you tried to marginalise me by insinuating that I was either a homosexual, a trans gendered person, or associated with businesses associated with services to transgendered persons.

And you have the unmitigated gall and hide, to dare claim that anything I've said to you or about you, has been anything other than fair comment? Let me know if you ever decide to take a brief refuge in reality Septic.

When that attack failed (god knows why you still continue it) you then tried to characterise me as a "criminal". Based on a conviction for drinking a stubby of beer in a public place.

When that failed, you simply bundled the best (worst) of your lies, fabrications and general tripe together and commenced to publish it on a daily basis in every conference in which I post, along with of course the names, email addresses, postal addresses, phone numbers and corporate registration numbers of a number of entirely uninvolved and "innocent" bystanders. You really are a very special form of scum aren't you Renfors.

Let's get a few things absolutely clear arsehole.

- 1/. You are a liar
- 2/. You are mad
- 3/. You are a Stalker
- 4/. You are a serial defamer
- 5/. You are, in any moral sense of the word, a criminal.

Be very grateful Septic that Usenet posts fall through a crack in the current laws of Australia and that you are not susceptible, by virtue of that crack, to civil and (by an dlarge) criminal action based on those posts. If you were, I would take the greatest of pleasure in dragging you through the court system so many times that your head would swim and they would install a special seat with extra padding for your ample arse in the dock, at the nearest court to Strathblyn.

Try harder Mr. snip and spin, no one is going to give that great big dollop of tripe even a moment's serious consideration, it is obviously complete drivel and completely k00ky.

I've decided that having you "officially" labelled a k00k is the next best alternative to being able to prosecute you (so you should be at least a little grateful to the flawed laws in Australia that provide inadequate means to deal with k00ks like you). After all, no one takes any notice of k00ks Renfors, and you have been afforded far too much time and far too much credibility by more normal people, for far too long.

sci.archaeology: Response to the latest stalking, lies and general shit gone by Seppo (the clown TM) Renfors.

> I suggest you make use of the COMMUNITY SERVICE I provide and report > each instance to the addresses provided!

But isn't it funny Septic, that you never have actually done that yourself.....I wonder why?

Well actually Donkey, we both know the reason don't we.

If you ever take one tiny step outside of your current protected little coward's castle (and let's face it k00k, coward is a wholly inadequate word to describe you, spineless poltroon being far more accurate in your case) I will have you, and you know it.

Hence your desire to recruit people to do what you are too cowardly, spineless and frightened, to do yourself.
