

Re: OT – to whom it may concern

---

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.archaeology/2006-04/msg00308.html>

---

- From: "Tom McDonald" <kiltmac@xxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: 14 Apr 2006 20:46:56 -0700
-

IE J wrote:

Matt,
the 'host' supplier of the abusers are noted since long. The US person only changed suppliers but used same computer IP-address all the same. The Principal or what ever it's called American universities don't have principals. Elementary and secondary schools do. Perhaps there's your confusion.

as well as the boardmembers of the University

The *regents* of Phil's university have contacted him about this? All of them? Personally? Please give your evidence, because this just does not happen in the way you are saying.

have tried to stop him long ago.

Tried to stop him? If they tried, they would have succeeded.

Problem when it's a US person involved is that it takes long time to go the official road in some of the states.

Well, we take our freedom of speech very seriously here. Clearly someone like you, coming from a country that seems to think it is more important to play nice than to tell the truth, or one's version of the truth, I can see how you would be frustrated by our little ways.

You know, we fought a war and wrote a few really, really powerful political documents to express what we believe is important. Somehow,

Re: OT – to whom it may concern

coddling touchy Swedes didn't make the cut. You can complain to Condi Rice. Or George Bush — you know, the American principal.

<snip>

.