The
heart
the
'Holocaust,'

Why don't you and Gwier just get a room
and giggle
over each other's denial

tactics.

You know, I ignore most of these squabbles because they bring out more believers than when showing the OT is nothing but a collection of myths. That is only interesting in that an event which did not merit even a footnote in the major first person texts on the war, those by Churchill, Eisenhower, DeGaulle. It draws more fanatical believers than the passing observations of atheists showing quite clearly to the fanatics this is more important than the denial of the divinity of Jesus Christ. I find that strange but obviously holocaustianism is treated as a religion with sacred truths of its own.

Typical nazi denial dressed up to resemble a real post.

where they have the Trial transcripts..

And not one word on gas chambers. Thank you for making the case.

Indeed, thank YOU for making the case. From the very same site, the findings regarding War Crimes and Crimes Against Humanity, as read (in part) by Judge John J. Parker, one of the judges at Nuremberg:

Re: Auschwitz – the "death factory" with an orchestra, theatre, hospital, cinema, complaints office

<http://www.yale.edu/lawweb/avalon/imt/proc/judwarcr.htm#civilian>

"The evidence relating to war crimes has been overwhelming, in its volume and its detail. It is impossible for this Judgment adequately to review it, or to record the mass of documentary and oral evidence that has been presented. The truth remains that war crimes were committed on a vast scale, never before seen in the history of war. ...

MURDER AND ILL-TREATMENT OF CIVILIAN POPULATION

A certain number of the concentration camps were equipped with gas chambers for the wholesale destruction of the inmates, and with furnaces for the burning of the bodies. Some of them were in fact used for the extermination of Jews as part of the " final solution " of the Jewish problem. Most of the non-Jewish inmates were used for labour, although the conditions under which they worked made labour and death almost synonymous terms."

I suppose you believe that if you lie often enough, you can get away with it. This is but one (minor) example of the lying engaged in by Holocaust deniers such as yourself, Giwer.

I suppose that people will in fact some day read what I wrote and usually what I respond to.

The claim was there were confessions to gas chambers in Nuremberg. I said there was none in the transcription. You have not produced anything from the transcript. Nor have you produced a statement by an SS member to the effect that there were gas chambers. You have produced something that is not footnoted and cannot be determined to be other than the invention of the writer.

Lying asshole, what was quoted was a finding by a Judge of the Court. Do you suppose that it was based on nothing at all? It was based on testimony, from liberating military, from liberated camp survivors, and from German prisoners, as well as on documentary evidence.

Of course I have quit hoping believers will ever be bright enough to respond to the subject at hand.

You have a set, asshole, to accuse someone else of not being "bright enough." You are betting into a royal flush holding a six-high hand, and the only people who think that your hand is a winner are clods like you who haven't two neurons in what passes for your brains. You live, instead, on bigotry and hatred. It's all you are capable of.

Apart from the excavation of the bone ash deposits this has nothing to do with archaeology

Apart from the absence of the thousands of cubic yards of
"bone ash"
required not existing it has everything to do with the same kind of sham
archaeology that constantly finds Noah's Ark and David's Palace and Solomon's Stables and all the rest of the crap believers claim exist but
is unknown to science.

If the US recognizes the right of Jews to Palestine how can it deny Utah

to

the Latter Day Saints?

Easily. The Latter Day Saints are about a millenium late in settling Utah as compared to Native Americans. On the other hand, the Jewish People lived in and around the present location of Israel more than a millenium prior to the birth of Christ. Nor have the Latter Day Saints been the victims of genocide.

There is no evidence there were any Jews or Judeans prior to the 2nd c.
BC. The people and the religion appear out of no where without the least archaeological or historical evidence of existence prior to that century.
They appear to be an invented religion like the LDS.

<http://www.allaboutarchaeology.org/merneptah-stele-faq.htm> gives evidence from the 13th century BC for the existence of Israel as a people.

http://www.momentmag.com/olam/Apr06/MOM-2006-04\_mazar.html is one of many links that can be found that describe, at a minimum, artifacts illustrating the existence of an Israelite earlier than 2nd BC (that is, one doesn't have to believe in either the historicity of King David or the reiligious authenticity of the Bible to understand the significance of the bulla dating to the late 7th century BC.

That aside, having lived in a place many centuries ago is not a claim to the place today. That they all left voluntarily or converted to Islam or Christianity does not support any such claim. If there are those dumb enough to believe the legend that they were expelled by Rome, then they have a gripe with Italy not the Palestinians.

Let's see. You argue that having lived many centuries ago in a place and leaving voluntarily does not support a claim to that place. So the Palestinian claim to today's Israel is based on ...? Having lived on the land (in most cases not a claim to having owned the land per se) and having left it in 1948–1949 VOLUNTARILY as a result of them being told to do so by their Arab Bretheren who warned that they would be killed in the war to push the Jews into the sea. In fact, today's Palestinians weren't Palestinians in 1948, were they, Matty?

But what are facts to morons like you, Giwer? You needn't bother to respond to this post, Giwer, you Nazi son of a bitch, because my present post says all that needs saying with respect to you and your ilk. You've been caught in a lie, your credibility (rather any tattered thread thereof which you imagined that you had) is gone, and I won't waste further time with you.

You are clearly ignorant of history and archaeology. You have some idiot delusion that members of a religion have a claim to land because members of that religion happened to be there a couple thousand years ago.

They certainly have a right to purchase the land. And they certainly have a legal right pursuant to international law, since the country was established per UN vote.

Genetic studies have been done. They are conclusive. The Palestinians and the Sephardic Jews are the same people. The Ashkenazi from eastern Europe are not related to them. Even their ancestors never lived there even if that were a recognized basis for a claim to the personal property of other people.

Genetics notwithstanding, the Palestinian people and the Israelies are not the same people. The former have been taught from birth, and their ancestors were taught from birth, that their religion dictates that Jews are for killing. The latter have been taught, from birth, that their heritage and their religion is "Thou Shalt Not Kill."
