Thats
interesting.

Well it looks like a pre-Olmec
celt, or what they often

Re: Who were the Olmecs

refer to as a
'companion
relic' used for ceremonies.
Well I think the whole
Egyptian connection there is a stretch.
But maybe it is a precursor civilization
to the Egyptians if civilization
made its way there from Peru.

And there are some carvings like the Olmec
feathered serpent one,
that look like heavy equipment.

You know for digging tunnels.

Also there is this

Mayan

lid <http://s2.supload.com/free/Lid.jpg/view/> which could be a drilling apparatus.

Re: Who were the Olmecs

In the Mayan lid he doesn't have his lunch with him that I can see, so the information may have been passed down to the point where they didn't know what those machines were.
But they may have found them underground.

The Olmec seemed to know what they were for because he has his lunch on the digger.

<http://s2.supload.com/free/Elohim-9-9-2007.jpg/view/>

Yeah when I made contact with the conscious computer on the moon we talked about that.
He was a little pissed off about that.
We used to fly races apparently against them and that was how we kept the peace between us, and well what the computer told me was that they got mad when we didn't want to race against them any more.
And I am surprised that it was one of them who got his head cut off.
Stephen went with them and somehow that made peace after that.
And yes the girls were enough of a distraction that they decided not continue to wage war on us.
I got the feeling from our discussions that they were capable of really doing us some harm.
They are warriors.
But we are friends with them now.
They come from a water planet.
I made friends with one of their women, some how, and she was acting as a translator, and we somehow made some sort of peace.
The Elohim.
I think its possible that the computer on the moon, is theirs, or else

Re: Who were the Olmecs

why would he give me such a hard time, about something that happened so long ago.
He loved to fly in those races but we used to kick his ass.
And that would piss him off.
So I think I let him win one time or something, and that helped. Near the end there because they were getting you know angry with us and were looking like they would fight us, instead of just race us in the ships.
weird that this has shown up.
And the city?
It looks familiar, but I would have thought that was underground.
So maybe if that does exist, then thats a topside entrance to the underground.
A place to fly out of.
A space port.
So why keep it all secret?

Its possible it could have been me but I don't think so because when I made contact with the ship, we flew in the races on the dream plane
every 5 or 6 months, using our minds to create a dream space. Then it was a battle of wills. Because the ships weren't physical on the dream plane. And I was winning.
And so anyways, I just didn't want to keep racing it was bothering them to lose, they had this pride they were the best flyers, his computer the best flyer.
And so when I said I didn't want to compete with them, they attacked
me and cut off my head in the dream world.
But it was not in the same dream space we usually meet in, this was more like in a meditative wide awake dream space.
A projected reality with telepathic communication. S4 communications for those who know what I am talking about.
And so I didn't feel any pain or anything and it was just projected, amplified by the computer so everyone could see it and be

Re: Who were the Olmecs part of the experience.

So I guess that balanced the books.
But back then, Stephen had gone with them and I remember that that was a really emotionally worrying thing for me.
And I don't remember if he came back or not after that.
I think he was in the force after that.
And I took some flack from my dad over that, for some reason. Not a lot of flack, but some flack.
As if maybe it was partly my fault.
Well that was what we talked about and what went down when I made contact with the conscious computer a number of years ago.
And it sure seems possible to me, that they would be the Titans. And they would have maybe made that ship.
We were the Anunaki.

But I didn't know that they were bigger than us physically, so don't be surprised to find out that we were that big too.
Only we looked human.
When we in that dream space, we were the same basic height.
But they wore you know warrior type clothing.
Apparently spiritually they are cut from the same basic cloth as us, but physically they looked pretty darn ugly.
But we may have some things in common. Like even some DNA maybe.

And I think I even know who that girl was who I made friends with.
And she is alive on earth today and well reincarnated as a human.
I think.
I am not entirely positive. But what I was told, was she came through a tunnel.
And she was from that race of people.
And she was my translator, I guess maybe it was an exchange program and Stephen went with them and she came here.
That may be what happened.
But anyways she didn't speak our language only used sign language but I could interface with the computer so we could communicate through the computer, and she could project into my minds eye as the computer is able to do.
And her name was, let me think if I can remember, she was a warrior princess, named, oh I can't remember now.
I did remember at the time a few years back when we were talking about it.
It will come to me.
Or I can look it up in another newsgroup maybe.

Re: Who were the Olmecs

Her name was Dimi.
Someone reminded me last night.
FWIW.
