Another well known fact is that there are six surviving descriptions of Herod's temple in which information on its location can be found. All six preclude this hill.

Another well known fact is the entire Wailing Wall/Temple Mount can not be traced back further than the late 19th c. There is no mention of any such thing from before that time.

Matt the Pratt spouting nonsense as usual. All descriptions of the Jewish temple place it firmly in the area of the Haram, and the documented history of the site stretches right back to Roman times and includes Crusaders, Jewish and Christian pilgrims, and travellers.
