

Re: Fraud Alert!

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.astro.amateur/2004-10/1991.html>

From: JohnShap (dontbother_at_idontreadhotmail.com)

Date: 10/15/04

Date: Fri, 15 Oct 2004 12:30:14 GMT

"Ratboy99" <ratboy99@aol.com> wrote in message news:20041014234642.07779.00001425@mb-m25.aol.com...
> *So I order my 2005 Observer's Year two days ago from the RASC website. Get > an > email today that my credit card was declined for $27.60. Get home from > work > tonight and have a message from my credit card company to call the > automated > system to "verify recent activity." Those idiots declined my CC charge to > the > RASC because it was "keyed in" from outside of the country. So now I don't > get > my book? You gotta love how they can shut you down just like flipping a > switch.
> I'm going to start keeping my money where it is safe; under my mattress.
> rat*

So, where, exactly, is the fraud? Being inconvenienced doesn't count as fraud. Sorry for your experience, but get a little perspective here. You'd be ranting even more if someone got hold of your CC info and ran up charges on you.