Davoud,

If you post on usenet: "It's raining cats and dogs." then:
10 people will reply "You mean its raining felines and canines."
15 people will reply "Its raining cats and dogs because it is a Republican conspiracy."
10 people will reply "Its raining cats and dogs because its a Democratic conspiracy."
13 people will reply "Its raining cats and dogs because its a Federal Government conspiracy."
2 people will reply "Its raining cats and dogs because its an Alien conspiracy."
5 foreign responders will reply "Its raining cats and dogs because it is a Bush administration conspiracy."
4 reporters for Al-Jazeera will reply ""Its raining cats and dogs because the United States is trying to steal al of the cats and dogs from the Third World"
6 people will explain why it is meteorologically impossible for it to rain cats and dogs.
9 people will explain why its is meteorologically impossible for it to NOT rain cats and dogs.
5 lawyers representing the SPCA will threaten civil suits if it does not stop raining cats and dogs immediately.
3 people will killfile you.
3 people will remove you from their killfiles.
4 people will reply with something completely unintelligible.
That, in a nutshell, is life in the 21st century.
