Well I'm good at letter writing, this would not be the first time I've had to write to the main office of some company.

2nd I'm not down in Los Angeles, I'm 100 miles away from Downtown L.A. (I know how far because I drove it once and marked the milage) and I'm in KERN county. I have talked to other people that have been around a long time, and they all seem to have the same idea about him, that he's an A*Shole.

I'm going to do things one step at a time, all I want is for him to not even talk to me (or his wife either) and to stay away.

Oh, he kepted on asking why I don't go buy some land and set up there, I never said a thing back, but if I had the money to buy some land, there's a strip of land right between his place and the motel, THAT would be the land I'd buy and set up my scope on the sidewalk in front of my land! Talk about driving the guy mad!
