Hi Florian,

OK. When I went, I usually stayed in a place in The Village Friday and Saturday night. I tried to drive there and back in one day, but usually I stayed around until late into Saturday night, and that made the trip home perilous.

It should be cold. It wasn't that warm in LA, and Big Bear is at altitude. Everyone up there, bundle up !

Sincerely,
--- Dave Nakamoto

By the way, I expect the skies were clear last night and will be tonight at the site?

Hi Dave,

I didn't spend the night. Today was mostly clear with some high cirrus now and then. Breezy. I think tonight will be cold.
