Have they been found? Will they be put on DVD – or better HD-DVD or Blue-Ray?

In case you don't know.. Here is the news..

While many people are familiar with the grainy footage showing Neil Armstrong's first step on the moon's surface, most don't know that the original images sent to earth were high-quality transmissions. The conversion of the original signal into a format that could be rebroadcast over standard televisions accounted for the blurry images of Armstrong and fellow lunar astronaut Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin
