My post was intended to set the record straight in response to those serious accusations against me. I can't just let them sit on the Internet unchallenged.

Posting it eight times may not be the best way to obtain the sympathy of the readers here. Not only that, but we aren't idiots (well, except for the idiots but everyone knows who they are, except for them I guess). We can tell when someone is posting nonsense, given that we read so much of it here we are experts at it! I doubt many here were even able to make any sense out of the Pazimo postings, and the response by "Tom O" is pretty much self explanatory, if you know what I mean. ;-)

If you are a reasonable party in your dispute (which no one here cares about by--the--way) then I urge you to post nothing further. Further belaboring the point regarding a local matter on an international forum will only serve to make you look foolish. Just a friendly observation...
