

Re: BRUCE KAMIAT RESPONDS TO LIBELOUS ACCUSATIONS POSTED ON THIS LIST AND ELSEWHERE ON THE NET BY JOHN PAZMINO AND TOM CLABOUGH

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.astro.amateur/2007-09/msg00561.html>

- From: Bruce <SN1951bk@xxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Tue, 11 Sep 2007 16:07:48 -0700
-

On Sep 11, 11:58 am, Tom 07 <tomc...@xxxxxxxxxxx> wrote:

As I was not a member of this group, I was not aware that Bruce Kamiat posted this message about myself, until a friend informed me. Clearly, I must respond. I do not intend to follow up with any further responses...unless he decides to provoke me again. Even in that case, I will try hard not to pay any attention to him.

On Sep 3, 2007 6:29 pm, Bruce Kamiat <SN195...@xxxxxxxxxxx> wrote:

"Tom Clabough for a long time pursued a macropolitical agenda: using John Pazmino's Yahoo group, ostensibly an amateur astronomy forum, as a platform for verbally assaulting Democrats and others who disagree with his far-right-wing politics."

First of all, I didn't begin posting political responses on that group until AFTER many left-wing and Republican-bashing messages were posted. Second, the extent of my "far-right-wing politics" is to state my objection to the FACT that the democratic party has moved waaaay to the radical left. In fact, two democrat party House chairmen, John Conyers and Charlie Rangel, OPENLY work with Revolutionary-Communist organizations! One of the organizations, The Revolutionary Communist Party, actually calls for the violent overthrow of the American government.

From the website of the Revolutionary Communist Party, parent org behind World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime, the same organization that democrat Chair of the House Judiciary Committee, John Conyers of Michigan, endorsed, then gave a SPEECH to!

The RCP "Mission Statement": "Create Public Opinion, Seize Power! We are preparing minds and organizing forces for the time when there is a major crack in the system, whenever it comes and wherever it comes from: an opening that makes it possible to bring the future Revolutionary Army of the Proletariat (R.A.P.) into the field and wage a revolutionary armed struggle that actually has a chance of winning. And we have said that building our party itself is the most important part of organizing forces for revolution. This is true now, and it is true looking forward to the creation of that future R.A.P. and the waging of that armed struggle. ":

(see link for details)<http://revcom.us/a/v20/1000-1009/1000/barw.htm>

On Oct 5, 2006, Democrat Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, John Conyers Jr, the same who is out leading an "investigation" into the Bush White House, gave a speech to the World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime organization.

(see link for details)http://www.worldcantwait.net/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&i...

Or, if the long url above breaks up:<http://tinyurl.com/ygx9w6>

Before that, he openly ENDORSED the movement!
See "Endorsers of the Call to Drive Out the Bush Regime Include...".
(John Conyers' endorsement appears immediately after Ward Churchill's)

(see link for details)http://worldcantwait.net/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=25...

Or, if the long url above breaks up:<http://tinyurl.com/ef6z6>

FACT: World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime is a MAOIST—revolutionary movement initiated and controlled by the Revolutionary Communist Party!

(scroll down the list that appears to find the World Can't Wait organization —rwor.org is the website of the Revolutionary Communist Party) :

(see link for details)<http://rwor.org/a/rwlink/links.htm>

From David Horowitz's FrontpageMag.com /DiscoverTheNetworks.org:

Profile: World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime (WCW)

*Revolutionary communist movement that stages protests against the Bush administration

*Organizes college and high-school students

*Founded in June 2005 by Charles Clark Kissinger, a longtime leader of the Revolutionary Communist Party

(see link for details)<http://www.discoverthenetworks.org/groupProfile.asp?grpId=7213>

Here's the Revolutionary Communist Party (see link below) boasting of a FULL PAGE 'World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime' ad of theirs which actually appeared in the New York Times. (either "rwor.org" or "revcom.us" takes you to the website of the Revolutionary Communist Party). The NY Times allowed a 2nd full-page RCP/WCW ad to be run several months later! In fact, they are, or have very recently, ran another large ad. (see link for details)<http://www.rwor.org/a/028/who-hated-bush-ad.htm>

Here's a photo of the current chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, DEMOCRAT Charlie Rangel, at the podium of a Workers World Party /

Troops Out Now demonstration here in New York City. Also, in this set of photos are terrorist and communist attorneys Lynn Steward and Ramsey Clark. They were at the same WWP event in which Rangel spoke. Ramsey Clark is the founder and chair of the International Action Center, as well as the former Attorney General under democrat prez LBJ. The IAC works very closely with WWP. In fact, they even share the same office space in NYC.

(see link for details)<http://www.workers.org/march19/index2.html>

Here's a letter former, now deceased, chairman of the Workers World party, Sam Marcy, sent to "Comrade Kim Jong-Il". It's from the Workers World Party's own website (workers.org) :

"On July 9 (1994), Workers World Party Chairperson Sam Marcy sent the following statement to Comrade Kim Jong Il, the Central Committee of the Workers Party of Korea and the State Funeral Committee of President Kim Il Sung." :

"Dear Comrade Kim Jong Il... Comrade Kim Il Sung devoted his whole life to the Korean people's struggle for national self-determination and the international working-class struggle for socialist emancipation. With his leadership, the Korean people defeated the Japanese colonial occupation and soon after brought about the first defeat of the U.S. imperialist military machine....

Workers World Party values our close, comradely relations with the Workers Party of Korea very highly. We are proud to have known Kim Il Sung as a great leader and a comrade in the international communist movement. And it is with the most profound sense of loss that we mark his passing. Yet it is also with the greatest revolutionary optimism that we are confident that Comrade Kim Il Sung's legacy will live on with your efforts to win new victories for the Korean people.... With comradely solidarity, Sam Marcy Chairperson, Workers World Party":
(see link for details)<http://www.workers.org/marcy/cd/sam94/1994html/s940721.htm>

From wikipedia.com:

The WWP has organized, directed or participated in many coalition organizations for various causes, typically anti-imperialist in nature. The International Action Center, which counts many WWP members as leading activists, founded the Act Now To Stop War and End Racism (ANSWER) coalition shortly after 9/11, and has run both the All People's Congress (APC) and the International Action Center (IAC) for many years. The APC and the IAC in particular share a large degree of overlap in their memberships with cadre in the WWP. In 2004, a youth group close to the WWP called Fight Imperialism Stand Together (FIST) was founded.
(see link for details)http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Workers_World_Party

And here's old (democrat) Charlie Rangel again with terrorist attorney Lynn Steward and International Action Center (IAC) leader Ramsey Clark, at the Workers World Party/Troops Out Now rally:
(see link for details)<http://www.workers.org/march19/index2.html>

As for Bruce Kamiat's "moderate" political positions, he once admitted to me he attended an annual socialists scholars event at BMCC, a 2-year community college I attended during the eighties. The event included an indoctrination/propaganda campaign aimed at recruiting young naive college kids into the socialist and/or revolutionary communist movement. Kamiat also once stated that he went over to communist Nicaragua during the eighties to 'see for himself' what was happening there. Nothing wrong or illegal with any of this of course, but it does take away a bit from his claim that he is a standard liberal democrat. He also defended a so-called "anti-war" rally in NYC several years ago which was actually led by communist activist Leslie Cagan, who is/was? the founder and co-chair of the org Committees of Correspondence for Democracy and Socialism/CCDS. The CCDS is an offshoot of Communist Party USA. Obviously, any group or individual who supports "Revolution", such as the Cuban revolution, cannot possibly be truly "anti-war". In fact ALL of the popular "anti-war" coalitions around today were initiated by communist organizations. We have:

United For Peace and Justice, chaired by the above mentioned, Castro supporter Leslie Cagan.

Troops Out Now and A.N.S.W.E.R., both initiated and controlled by Workers World Party leadership or 'former' leadership.

World Can't Wait—Drive Out the Bush Regime, initiated and controlled by the Revolutionary Communist Party (RCP).

Bruce Kamiat <SN195...@xxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote:

"Clabough accuses me of actual felonious acts (brandishing an unlicensed firearm with menacing intent) and potential for deadly violence. This is therefore far the more serious of the two. There are three basic components to this libel: that I threatened him with a gun; that I said "you never know who we might shoot"; and that I said "don't approach me in the park again," with various ominous implications he tries to attribute to this entreaty."

I never mentioned anything about your gun being "illegal" Anyway, here is exactly what Bruce Kamiat said in his message:

"By the way, don't approach me in the park again, Tom. Just don't..."

And when I reminded the group of an earlier threat he made ("You never know who we might shoot!"), in which he included the following direct link to a photo of himself holding a gun while lurking in some decrepit old hallway somewhere, he reissued the threat by saying,

"I'm glad you remember that, Tom. Keep it in mind."

Sound like "sarcasm" to you?

The photo, which had been in the group's file section, has since been removed. And since John Pazmino rarely, if ever, removes content from his group, I suspect that Bruce Kamiat himself removed the photo.

On Sep 3, 6:29 pm, Bruce <SN195...@xxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote:

I never removed the file nor any of the photos it contained. In my message posted here, I included a link to a Web site on which photos of myself in reenactor role are still displayed, so that anyone may see them. I have nothing to hide regarding either my politics or my reenactor activities. I don't think I've done anything wrong in either of those areas of my life. I take pride in my participation in political life, in my attempts to increase my understanding of the great historical movements and events that have occurred during my lifetime, and in my activities in commemorating and educating the public about those great events and struggles that preceded my own time in this world. In my World War Two reenactor roles I express my admiration for the men who fought that war on what I feel was the right side of that conflict.

Bruce Kamiat

.