Nope. Fine here. BTW I like your header – good show!

Gang,

Is anyone else having difficulty getting to www.astromart.com ? My ISP (Road Runner cable) has been acting up all day. I can get to www.cloudynights.com just fine with almost instantaneous response, and I'm currently having the same results when trying to get to various other of my favorite astronomy sites, but about half are unobtainable.

Anyhow, I just wondered if this difficulty is more widespread than just from NE Ohio.

Thanks for responses.
