You don't want to understand because you can't imagine that change can happening so profoundly and quickly that it would take you completely off guard.

Earth and earth 'leadership' is stuck & repeating itself like a broken record with only one thought on it's mind: how to create conflict in order to profit by it and create a class of elitism addicted to their own false bravado.

So, to those who know this leadership philosophy is coming to the end of it's consumption cycle and in order to maintain their conflict role after they have expended a human life on earth, they must now look to the future planned conflicts by creating a race of military robots to fight because in
