There has been an extreme amount of abuse with these groups over a long period of time. It is not good for people. Peace is good for people. People being nice to people is good for people.

Good people stayed away from these groups. People who know a lot stayed away. Now these groups are made up of about 100 people who write articles. They insult people. They talk to people who insult people. They talk to those people. Most of the articles about physics and astro are bad.

People need to think what is happening to these groups.

God is against these groups. God tends to work against a group of people if some of the people are dishonest. It is probably true the lives of most of the people who write articles for these groups are bad. It is probably true if these people had good lives they would not be on the internet acting dishonest.

It is probably true a small number of people read these groups. I think most people who read these groups read a small number of articles.

People need to act honest or they will be the losers.
