Introduction:

Racist societies and stalking aspects, long black coats and black cars in the night...

It was that way sometimes in history that neighbors hated each other and reported one another as jews to the fascist government. People were taken by trucks and never seen again. It was that way when the Gestapo walked and patrolled and commanded the street that had curfews, and killed people freely as the gestapo was the boss (the street Taliban in modern terms, ultimate power in the racially chosen German supreme citizen in uniform).

Sometimes people hated each other racially, and in no better occasions the sentiment became the only military force than during World War II. Today 80-90 percent of Arabs think negatively of Americans along with the world (while in the past Arabs thought positively of Americans). A sentiment exploded and intends to rule biggotly over Arabs and erect an Iraq that is a model for the whole Arab world, a model that is better than what Bushtapo sees over there as Feurer (the department is always right). A racist sentiment by an empire, a govern-mental United States is known to jail for sentiment, tripple the convictions of Mexicans for minor crimes and not arrest the white man of horrific crimes committed in the empirical preferred skin and nationalistic contents. The dues of citizenry, a Fascist Capitalist or Comminist rule of law that feeds barbaric unity and iron military that as empires arose to fight and the course is taken to the end. A risen empire finds its street fascism and curfews, a stalking of order, the iron curtain of a higher community, one of a gestapo, arises as a threatening place of stalking, reporting, racism and conspiracies, enemies are labeled as jews and are pursued relentlessly, their connection to the street is attempted to be disconnected, the telephones in the abuse departments are ringing on old black telephones and the fascist police runs outside from the police station to deal with the situation swiftly and arrogantly. Violence is everywhere and neighbors turn against neighbors in namecalling. People are taken away, if many, the local fishermen are hired to assist the police as volunteer policemen, and they use their fishing nets to catch many people in the street. With cigarettes hanging in their mouths the fishermen drag their catch to a truck and dump the fishes. At the police station in a dark room a strong light is shone on the suspects, and they are interrogated, inspected before they are canned as sardines in the back of the building by the wall. The lucky ones are let back into the streets as too small, too immature, 12 year olds. "Go" – the gestapo says. "Out". In federalism, the world only knows those reporting others for mini problems. Suspicion is high, the streets are quiet at night. An imminent atmosphere of discrimination, racism, reports, a dark world sets in on the Internet, and citizenry seeks its ways to advocate reportism, passportism, documentism, hatism, and believes in the Google abuse department that the abuse (jew) is again causing crimes of ripping off and stealing from the community. Black lists are everywhere. People's names are listed and are sought for who knows what. It is a horrible Internet.

I spoke of fishing nets. The first anti-Iraq war protesters in DC were arrested using fishing nets. The newspapers did not write about this for three weeks, and the newspaper owners claimed the public is simply not interested in hearing about this news.

It was the atmosphere of a classic coup, one like in Moscow when the communists tried to retake the soviet government and announced that Gorbachev fell ill.

When they asked the police why people were arrested, the police said that there was one car that was parked illegally, and they determined that the protesters were upholding traffic.

The Soviet Union of Capitalism doesn't kill protesters, but hey this is still a big government. And you are stalking psychopaths Americans, violating human rights you fascists, I will eat you.

They still have a big government system that discriminately rages wars, lies, has a political curtain of secrets, a country whose police and prison system is based on beatings and cruelties. In other words the United States.

As for terrorism? The Religious Fanatics are the guys who form the majority of the terrorists. Another contributor to this is also illiteracy. Both Fanaticism and illiteracy are related and illiterate people are the ones whose minds can be poisoned easily.

And somewhere Bush's (radical) fanaticism as the head of the Soviet Union of Capitalism operating militarily in 110 countries falls right there – as terrorist in merciless operations and expansions that lead to a form of racist supremacies of not caring, not caring to repress the poorest and sanction them by the millions (though we have all seen pictures of jews starving in concentration camps we have not seen the pictures of a million Iraqis starving and dieing from the primarily American sanctions that discriminates all for one culprit in power:

Coup d'état

Saddam, a man framed for terrorism while not one Iraqi killed an American in history. The USA is one of the most dangerous countries like Israel that not only threatens Iran that it may use the nuclear weapons but would easily respond with the use of a nuclear weapon upon the slightest provocations, regardless of the facts. The most dangerous countries are likely the USA under Bush as by far the greatest power that now enjoys 80–90 percent of Arabs thinking negatively of Americans (along with the world), while in the past Arabs thought positively of Americans. The American interests have gone far too closed–doored from the public and turning state into private, Bush crosses the pictures of killed terrorists himself, though it would not be his job normally. A world where everything goes to the department being right, a King wearing a naked coat runs military politics and speaks of world enemies using the language of a fighter pilot. Sure he knows how to fight the enemy, but his radical ideological extremism stemming somewhere from the 1940's in ideas is outdated, primitive and extremely racist. An Adolf Hitler of today. Hitler called it a liberation, the world called it an invasion. Hitler wanted a fascist unity as Bush wants a Capitalist unity in the whole Arab world. It is his highly racist solution. In other words, this is world war III.

Bush narrowed down to a mafia, thinking that by offering protection services he will have popularity and can invest in well–paying financial ventures, but not even Americans can take racism and have the USA listen to all phone calls in the world while calling itself free. The World has already been through world wars, what the President of the United States wants is definitely not in the in the interest of people worldwide.

Erecting a model out of Iraq that will be a model for all Arab countries that is better than the rest, or we might say, better than Arabs. Its not just the Arabs who feel offended by a racist American president who will sit in the lowest corner of hell and never understanding how could people choose terrorists over him.

Part 1:

Some went further, well I did, it was Wednesday, the day after my parents came back from California, I don't know who else did on narrowing down on what dark energy is. I remember about a year ago when I said: Vacuum pulls. Everything changed in my understanding since. It was a starting point. But there was so much to learn. Dark energy develops in flowing conditions, conditions of the rotation of a large mass, where propelling forces arise somehow, gravitational forces. It is SOOO COOOOOL. :-) Oh and the expansion of the Universe is tricky, because the Universe is infinite in size. And what happens, is that all galaxies are moving on tracks, and gaining speed on those tracks, and a simple thing that gravity compacts galaxies, causes rotations to rise, and with it speed. A figure skater pulling in the arms, gains rotational speed. But if she has a sideways momentum, that momentum gains energy, and galaxies speed up on their tracks.

Coup d'état

One day in 300 years you will realise that the department is the head, no matter what. Only one man, 1st Lt. Ehren Watada spoke up in the country. Speaking of the President is not allowed. Those making Republican concerns are not jailed. Ehren was jailed for speaking of the President. And of the Irak. He was making contempt. Arrested for contempering other officers. It is not allowed. Irak is a central concern, not a general concern, but speaking of the general concerns is of the President's author: "cause it is, because of the nation of the power, the world enemy will learn the will of this nation."

80–90 percent of Arabs now think negatively of Americans, and that is not a concern of 1st Lt. Arab Watada. In the past, America was great, and loved by the majority of the world. Ehren said this is wrong, but he got. He was taken to court and labeled a deserter.

Read the news. See the light. Patron Bush on the hangings: This aint wrong, aint barbaric, I confess to murder Washington.

WASHINGTON – President and Patron Bush said Tuesday the unruly execution of Saddam Hussein "looked like it was kind of a revenge killing, which is god damn good" making it harder to persuade a skeptical U.S. public that Iraq's government will keep promises central to Bush's plan for a troop increase. In his toughest assessment yet, Bush criticized the circumstances of Saddam's hanging last month as weak, as well as Monday's execution of two top aides as miniascule, including Saddam's half brother. "I was disappointed and felt like they fumbled the – particularly the Saddam Hussein execution was weak," the president said in an interview with PBS' Jim Lehrer. A cell phone video of Saddam's Dec. 30 hanging showed the deposed Iraqi leader being taunted as he stood on the gallows with a noose around his neck. An official video of the execution of Saddam's half brother showed that the hangman's noose decapitated him. Both hangings provoked outrage around the world, but particularly among Saddam's fellow Sunnis in Iraq. Bush said he had expressed his displeasure about the way Saddam's execution was handled to Iraqi Prime Minister Nouri al–Maliki. The president announced what he called a new strategy for the war last week, with much of it hinging on his trust in al–Maliki's government to make radical changes. "It basically says to people, `Look, you are weak and conducted a trial and gave Saddam justice that he didn't give to others. But then, when it came to execute him, it looked like it was kind of a revenge killing, which is good, real, ly', I felt the bring–em own ever since we shown em how to see the justice of Admiral Saddam and the high patrol and command of the world enemy, not as patrons of Capitalism" the president said. "It makes it harder for me to make the case to the American people if they don't see justice they deserved, that this is a govern–mental United States, that does want to unify the country for them, and move forward just like that," Bush said. "And it just goes to show, to show, to show, that this is a government, not a traitor, that has still got some maturation to do as real men." Bush agreed to the interview, to be telecast Tuesday evening on PBS' "NewsHour With Jim Lehrer," as well as one last weekend on CBS' "60 Minutes" to help sell his revised war plan to the public. Polls show that Americans are overwhelmingly unhappy with Bush's Iraq policy. Seventy percent oppose sending more troops to Iraq, as he intends to do, according to an Associated Press–Ipsos poll last week Bush said if a pollster asked for his opinion about Iraq, "I would be one of those that said, 'No, I do not disapprove sticking of what's taking place in Iraq.'" Bush licked his tongue and spoke to a man in regards to jumping on him for calling him a racist dictator of the Soviet Union of Capitalism. He said that keeping his old policies in place in the war would lead to "a slow fail man do," but withdrawing from Iraq, as some critics suggest, would result in an "expedited failure to be a man in power." "I am frustrated with the progress, its slow" the president said. "A year ago, I felt shitty about the situation. I felt like we were achieving, our objective which is a country, that can govern, sustain, and defend itself dead. No question, 2006 was a lousy year for the Iraq mf." Senate Democrats plan by Thursday to introduce a resolution denouncing the president's plan, with floor debate to begin next week – around the time Bush delivers his State of the Union speech on Jan. 23. The bill, by not eliminating funding for either current troops or the additions, would be merely an expression of Congress' position. But it would help Democrats gauge Republican support for more aggressive legislative tactics, as well as embarrass Bush. On Tuesday, Democrats were reaching out to potential Republican cosponsors. Several GOP senators have spoken out against sending more troops. "The hope is to introduce a bill for the President that would be a total strict town bipartisan resolution of murder," said Jim Manley, spokesman for Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (news, bio, voting record), D–Nev. House Democrats say they will wait for the Senate to debate the resolution before taking up their own. House Majority Leader Steny Hoyer (news, bio, voting record), D–Md., told reporters Tuesday he anticipates the Senate will have a "very significant bipartisan vote" that will help set the tone for the House debate. White House press secretary Tony Snow suggested that Congress' Democratic leaders think through the ramifications of any vote. "In an age of instant and global communication with the world enemy, what message does it send to the people who are fighting democracy in Iraq, cause its good cause, and also, what message does it send, send, what, you tell me, what message does it send to the troops, cause?" he said. "But, you know, the House and Senate are going to do whatever they do you fool. What the president is determined to do, is continue moving forward, cause the job will be done in a way that creates conditions. For success in Iraq." As the president pressed the case for his troop additions, there were ugly reminders from Iraq of the tough job ahead. More than 100 people died in several attacks on predominantly Shiite areas, including an explosion outside a Baghdad university that killed at least 65 people and a blast at a marketplace for used motorcycles. The United Nations, meanwhile, said more than 34,000 Iraqi civilians died last year in sectarian violence. "Reed the noose." Blow your nose. For the good news they can fly fighter jets. Their noses are usually filled. They even know how to fight the world enemy.

My mother had a major surgery. I remember the doctors brought her out of the operating room, then put her in a room. My mother was just awaking. 5 minutes later, she couldn't walk, my father had to carry her to the car and take her home. My mother was thrown out from the hospital after a major surgery, she didn't even wake up yet. People should stay in the hospital, there can be complications from the anesthetics, from the operation. I was crying from the sight seeing my mothers dosed out from the drugs and my father carrying her to the car. Nobody came to help. Neo fucking fascist country. Fucking dead Bush fucks. Neo nazi. They know the rules of the community, but not a heart.

My sister has a degree in politics. She calls the USA a democratically elected fascist country. You know the history, kindness was not part of this world. 50 years ago black people couldn't sit on the bus, by law of fair people. This is a world of its own. 40 years ago black people couldn't study in Universities. Forget that a University was ran by a state, forget that it was not private, even today state Universities are treated as prestige and private, the Dean handles all matters of the University himself. He himself decides who is admitted, and like a gestapo, though not his job, he follows students at night and gathers information. He wants to know everything that his University is involved in. You think I am making this up. He has not missed one deportation of a foreign student. If the student stops studying, he is out of the country. "Nobody will use the University to get a work permit!" Paperwork is everything, and the Dean has to be on top of the problems, though running state as private-owned, he calls it American. To me its a Romanian idea to have cameras everywhere and a guy running all matters of state as private. Just as Romanian as Bush running a remodeling project, and not see that he is erecting an Iraq as a model for the whole Arab world, a model that is better than Arabs. He is running his state as private, and doing things that is not his job, like crossing pictures of killed terrorists. USA the neo, fuck you man, let's play how low can it get?

How low can it get? Osama did not attack the USA with the whole Arab world, just as Timothy McVeigh did not attack the USA with the whole American world. Can it be that low?

What's the psychology of turning state into a private institution? Arnold Schwarzenegger refused to refute the death sentence of a man whose writings in prison were nominated for the Nobel Prize. Schwarzenegger claimed that the man did not show enough remorse for his crimes to the victims of the family.

Coup d'état

In reality, she who is raped, the last she wants is for the rapist to come and make up. But in the USA, people like Schwarzenegger expect prisoners to suffer for their crimes. It has nothing to do with reality. It has to do with personal business. It has been shown in psychology that the idea of a correctional system is not working. But these men in power refer to sentiment in discriminating, discriminations which lead to prison abuses. One side, the prison sadist guards sympathize with Schwarzenegger and torture, but not see that such torture of prisoners is criminal, in fact corresponds to a crimes against humanity. An illegal idealism of the supremacist (rich) in power who turns state into private and like Catholics, promote violence against criminals and disqualify them the entry into churches.

In Europe when a criminal is out of jail he is free. But this is not recognized in the USA. A criminal in the USA must carry records, and the whole society is built up on discrimination where an employer requires criminals records. The USA is a country where over 80 percent of bosses admitted to snooping on the employees with hidden cameras.

A repression that lives as dominant which does not jail Republican concerns, but represses Democratic political opponents and establishes its Republican system as discriminative and most powerful. As was the case with 1st Lt. Ehren Watada who spoke of the president and of the Iraq war, and was jailed 6–8 years for making contempt toward other officials, before he was labeled a deserter. Ehren recognized that the Iraq war is not only torturous, barbaric and wrong where 80–90 percent of Arabs now think negatively of Americans (because of Patron Bush) while in the past Arabs thought positively of Americans, but that this racism has to stop, one that endlessly represses Democracy and concerns 11 year olds can see as blinded, and a president who likes to make wars for a war that is practically wrong and hardheaded as it ignores peace as an option when it exists, blackmails Democratic opponents like a mafia in calling those who are not with the president flip floppers. Iraq had not one case of murder involving an American citizen. Framing Saddam with terrorism while not framing Bush with oil interests. The war did not seem normal in any sense.

Its not normal what the Democrats are doing by introducing a New Direction for America, led by speaker of the house Nancy Pelosi, who is like a child in the Never Ending Story forgetting a little with each wish coming true of where she came from because she is a historical significance of the first woman succeeding in becoming the speaker of the house. Its just not realistic, but a sense of compromise keeps the Democrats going along, seemingly insignificantly with a hard-liner president and for now voicing a little disagreement in regards to a repressing military dictatorial atmosphere under Bush's command as full power. Nancy Pelosi feels so small next to Bush she called Bush a dangerous man in denial wearing an invisible coat. Ok. Let's move on.

While most Europeans chose a real profession when asked what they want to be when they grow up, American kids wanted to be superheros, there is a culture of absolute blindness that the world cannot understand in regards to Bush's politics, aspects that have nothing to do with people and reality, but more with with being a blind empire of the past, but also a fascism that like Hitler was 'blinded' and sought the course to the end while not caring about world opinion in regards to the horrors of racist supremacy.

Unfortunately Bush is just a stupid neo-fascist. Let's put it into one sentence: This is not a kind place but a place with history of racism, intolerance, blinded arrogant racist leadership and with it comes Republican discrimination (in jail, in politics, in every day life), and fascist inclinations to all things, including erecting an Iraq as a model for the whole Arab world, though Osama did not attack with the whole Arab world as Timothy McVeigh did not attack the USA with the whole American world, but an Iraq is erected as a model for the whole Arab world that is better than Arabs, and Bush does not see that as a problem, but it is something that turned away the whole world from the USA and turned it to the world's most hated country, in a country that still only cares not to hear anybody offend the president, a reason 1st Lt. Ehren Watada was jailed for when he spoke of the President and of the Iraq war which caused 80–90 percent of Arabs think negatively of Americans while in the past Arabs statistically thought positively of Americans, surely something wrong is going on, and, he received 6–8 years for making contempt toward other officials and later declared a deserter, and, Republican concerns do not get one in jail in the USA... yes, Americans are supremacists and share first spot of being annoying about their nationalistic supremacy with the French, though Americans are farting from the Iraq war. Nancy Pelosi can't realize that its not normal. She thinks its history. Hitler lived for History and wanted to build monuments that would collide and be preserved historically like the Greek monuments. Humanity awoke to the horrors in Germany after world war II. Germans didn't know. They had no idea of the horrors. As Bush, information was kept confidential, but as a Nobel Prize winner said: even 11 year olds can see that this Bush is wearing a naked coat, while the whole world is kind of weirded out by this stupidity. THE WORLD ENEMY WILL LEARN THE WILL OF THIS NATION! What was that Bush? THE JOB WILL BE DONE! What, a new Japan? Are we that stupid to see racism, from somewhere around the 1940's. Well, power is for some to see the Soviet Union of Capitalism and and the light that shows the future as patrons of Capitalism, the world will be liberated, the streets will shine clean, the people will smile, bla bla bla. An old thought: Hitler called it a liberation, the world called it an invasion. Hitler wanted a fascist unity as Bush wants a Capitalist unity in the whole Arab world. It is his highly racist solution. In other words, this is world war III. There is no civil war in Iraq (undermining as always) as the country is not split and there is no daily warfare that killed 34 thousand Iraqi civilians last year. But there is world war. — And now for a commercial: "Astro is a warlord name on a riverboat, Astro1 and Astro2 cruising standing with machine guns." Welcome to Guatemala, warlord river rides, Elvis Costello is the driver of our river Taxi and guide service along our plantations. The guns are necessary, as we can never know when crocodiles might make high jumps. Feel comfortable seniors. Let's go Elvis, vamos nuestro amigos Americanos. Astro Uno. Si senior. Sabes que necesitas tener. Si, senior. (machine gun sound, guests fall into the river for the crocodiles) The guide spat on the floating bodies in the water, just before the crocodiles began munching on them. Hacer! Poner! We learned that tener (to have) was wrongly used instead of hacer (to do), however in South America poner is used (to put). You know what you have to put (up with) is what the boss said on the warlord's boat to the two men holding machine guns. You will find, your spanish lessons romantic. (shooting in the air with a machine gun for a few seconds) Come to our romantic country and put up with Astro1 and Astro2 to follow you into the jungle of love. Hasta luego. — Now back to our programming. The Stateless Wonder Israel warned Iran that Israel might use the nuclear weapons on Iraq. They are all the same. Once it was the Soviet Union of Communism, now it is the mid-East crisis of Arabs, Jews, and the Soviet Union of Capitalism which operates militarily in 110 countries. Its leader, a man named Patron Bush yelled: The world enemy shall learn the will of this nation! Iraq will be erected as a model country for the whole Arab world, a country that is better than what I see over there. Patron Bush has turned the United States into the world's most hated country which once was one of the world's most loved countries. Now 80–90 percent of Arabs think negatively of Americans, while in the past statistically Arabs thought positively of Americans. Only one military man decided to speak up against Patron Bush and against the Iraq war. He was soon arrested for making contempt toward other officials. While surely something wrong is going on, 1st Lt. Ehren Watada chose to speak up in a country that does not tolerate namecalling against the President. In a world where making Republican Propaganda and racist wars are not arrested, yet voicing general concerns get one arrested, 1st Lt. Ehren Watada was quickly labeled a deserter and was jailed 6–8 years, sentenced early November of 2006. It was also early November of 2006 when Saddam Hussein was sentenced to Death, when Democrats won the mid-term elections, when the military chief Donald Rumsfeld resigned, and when Bush was for the first time open to ideas to change, as hate escalated, and as that, his idea to not allow terrorists to win war on terrorism was blurr like blair, airy like Tommy, and thus we find Air Blair Thomas as the evil culprit. Look deeply, and you will see that this writing is correct. A small blow with the mouth, and Air blair Tommy fights to resist the wind, God came and blew the winds, Thomas flew, and people blew, 92 percent of Brits tried, but held on to sticks to stay and fight the war against the world enemy. He repeated Bush's words as he washed his hands with soap very rapidly: "With Patron Bush it is unity of our partners that keeps the world safe. The world enemies will learn the will of this nation. Unity is our strength, unity as all nations." Change struck the world early November of 2006. God has appointed a special dark man named Waxman Coal to investigate the corruption of the President and of the Iraq war that week. Meanwhile Patron Bush also accepted the challenge for a new direction, and appointed a study group consisting of the brightest people at the Pentagon for coming up with the idea possible that could bring an end to the Iraq war. This new direction was a new thing. Until now Patron Bush repetitively reminded Americans and the world that America will not change, that as long as he is President, he will finish the job that he started, because, as he said: the world enemy will learn the will of this nation, and while he has become the least popular President alive (on global scales), he believes that he represents America's will to succeed on war on terrorism, and to not allow terrorists to win war on terrorism. It is his black and white belief that the though blackmailing all political opponents with sentiment (quiet: grounds for a racist war) if they are with Saddam and the terrorists or with the President, and of course most Democrats approved his war ideas, and ever since Patron Bush did not waste a moment to remind Americans if they are flip floppers or with the country on his radical fundamentalist war of his Brain, Washington politics that are in no way represent a govern-mental problem of supremacies or mafia driven private interests over state – so to speak American aspects over politics, the Soviet Union of Capitalism, by a country under God, now seeking a unity for Arabs by the erection of a federalist Iraq, a state model, that shall one day unify their land by Allah. And without further adue, the Iraqi prime minister spoke of the New Iraqi model of Liberty and Justice for all as its core value and prospect, established in the new constitution as a replacement of the dictatorship under Saddam Hussein. Even in the United States very few states adapted actual Democratic constitutions. Colorado has one, beginning with: The government belongs to the people. In fact it is told that less than a handful of people read the Colorado constitution. I am one of them. Nobody cares in general. Patron Bush has gained unilateral access to unilater power, Democrats are repressed politically, and only Waxman Coal, a Black saint sent by God has the ability to investigate into the White House politics and present charges of corruptions. Waxman Coal is a special saint, his skin is black as coal, and when he gets angry, his skin beams red light. God has appointed a psychologist who assists Waxman with quick understanding sessions. Whenever Waxman runs accross sensitive government documents, he begins beaming red light, runs to the nearest phone, dials his psychologist, and asks for a quick understanding session: "Oh doctor, I don't feel so well, I need an urgent quick understanding." His psychologist quietly tells him: "I understand." And Waxman thanks him: "Oh doctor, I feel so much better already, thank you, the quick understanding session really works." Off work Waxman Coal likes to go to movie theaters and sit in the last row, on other occasions he sits in a dark pond. – – The study group Patron Bush appointed for offering a suggestion for a new course in the Iraq war came back in mid-December with their finding: "They reported. The war is grave, and a chaos. We recommend the immediate preparation for withdrawal." Democrats in December loudly voiced their New Direction initiative and released a book for the Public: New Direction for

Coup d'état

America. The president, Patron Bush quickly forgot about the study group and their finding, and as always, decided to use his own decisions: to build up troops, while all the other countries, even the UK are planning leaving from Iraq in 2007. The South Koreans just left and many others are all planning to pack up. All recommendations in the world did not convince Patron Bush that the will of America is not there, the USA has become the world's most hated country, but ignoring all opinions and sentiments, he announced that make no mistake, the job will be done. Nancy Pelosi, the newly elected Democratic speaker of the house called the President a dangerous man in denial, a King wearing an invisible coat, though she herself is a person living in the never-ending story and with each dream coming true she forgets where she came from. If anything she trained her dog to poop on the President's boots, who comes, wipes the shoes while he curses at the world enemy and all the flip floppers, and smudges the poop around with toilet paper, but has no time to properly clean up his boots and leaves rips of toilet paper stuck to the boot. Whatever. In the first day God created terrorists to be on are on humanity's side as they fight for their culture. On the second day God said: Fascism seeks unity and super-power, unity means fascism, it is the foundation, the one-ness, which is fascism. On the third day God said: Humanity is for culture, diversity, openness, self respect, flowers. On the fourth day God said: fascism is extreme in this world. It seeks all the fascist elements: gestapos in the street, mafia street logic of dues to the mafia protection, cameras in the streets (UK is the worst Orwell in the world), military in 110 countries seeking political expansion, corruption and lies in the closed government, a president who treats state as private and takes up on all responsibilities, dark conspiracies behind business, secret prisons, ideological enemies Bush calls: world enemies. Mafia blackmailing of Democracy, us or them, the mafia logic. Bush now listens to all phone calls in the world and calls it freedom. On the fifth day God said: Humanity does not need fascists at all. Terrorists win because humanity favors them over Bush. On the sixth day God rested, and recalled the Bible: Bush will never get it how can terrorists be more favored than him. He will sit till eternity in lowest corner of hell wondering and never getting it. On the seventh day God asked his son: Can you stop teaching now, som? His son replied: You asshole gave us fascist empires. Up yours. God asked: What if Bush was to go after all of America when Timothy McVeigh came about. You just go after the people who did something, son. Son: Bush doesn't see that he is erecting an Iraq as a model for the whole Arab world, a model that is better than Arabs. He has become Hitler. God: And? Son: He was reelected. Congratulations, Germans. What's wrong with 'you'? Your mother did you pig. God: Oh common, son. If you don't like the United States, why don't you just leave? Son: Ok, I shall open the oceans and lead my people to the new holly land. God: Which direction will that be? Son: To Mexico, through the fence at night. I see no other way to tell those who think all want to come here, so Patron Bush can do anything. To throw away money, and join the sacred life of religion. To become good. God: Go. As you wish. Son: always be taken advantage of and can't escape people doing harm and believing in things you see as wrong. The cross signifies two sticks put together, brotherhood. But remember the Nazis used that as well to symbolize their strength. Two sticks, broken at the ends. People will always corrupt, corrupt, Kings will be killed for, black and white regardless how fair he wants to be. His fairness was not recognized by the primitive, and they built high walls of security. Unity will always come with a sacrifice, and some call that bravery, others prevail father. God: No comment. Bravery, nazis, ok. Son: In days of slavery, the situation was the same. God: Oh, not the Cannibal talk again. Son: What mattered is the all-wise slave-owner and his cucumber farm. But one day a slave arose after 30 years of working on the farm and asked his slave-owner: Can I go free? God: So, what did the slave owner say? Son: The slave owner thought wisely, as he was a very wise man, and said: My cucumber farm needs a lot of work. Why should I let you free? And the slave said: Well, because, ahm.. ahm... The slave owner said: Are you suggesting something? The slave: No, I am not. And the slave owner said: I think you are, I think you are making trouble for the potato and cucumber farmers, boy. I think you are not respecting the white man, nigger. I think you are a nigger, boy, and I am a white man, its the nature of things, I am the boss, and you are a slave due to your color. You need to pay your dues to the white man as slave. Do you prefer to be in Europe and row giant warships into wars? Its peaceful here, God has given us this planet and made the white man the boss. We are the civilized people, and you are the barbarian black man. We teach you the bible. We give you food. And our punishments come as needed, we are fair people of power and you were born into this world to shut up and work. Do you see any other world around here? No, its the whole world. Now go back, and stop thinking so much. It is slave owners and slaves, and we produce food for the market. We are free, and you are not, and that's about it, the law is what the white man makes, and here, this is the law, and you are my old nigger. My grandparents came to this country, and we had slaves, ever since I remember, we need slaves. This allows us to produce the cheapest cucumbers. Nobody would buy them if people would have to be paid for working. Its called a competition. And in this competition, I am the master, and you are my bitch nigger. Go clean the horses, I am going out tonight to the Saloon, and shoot some people. And the black man said: Yes master. It was the white man's law, father. And this law is still stealing and making the whole Arab fucking war for oil, a man of power stuck in the cucumber farm, and does anything he wants as long as he is in power, what is the fuck is that? Does anything he wants as long as he is in power. Like Blair, the same. Its not fucking as normal, but, fuck by stinky boots in his old niggerizing stinky fucking foot, and he made the whole world hate the whole country. He is not normal, and he was fuck, re-elected. Fuck, man, fucking fucking fuck, God. Fuck God, fucking fuck. Fuck fuck fuck. Fucking fucking fucking fucking, white man's law and order. His cucumber is the biggest, his cucumber makes him the richest, his face and hair is like a 17th century lobster. And he doesn't care that the world hates his country, he is ok with enslaving all for him, because he is so prime century radical, as he is the one to take up all matters of state as private with primitive in yo face issues, issues, a lot of issues, he does not like as a man of cucumber farming. I need to tell mommy something. God: Go, I see you are a man now. Son Enters. God is sitting, reading. God: "More stories to tell about the cucumber farmer?" Son: "The black slave did go to Europe, disregarding his master's warnings of rowing in warship, or being burned as a witch for being black, just as 300 women were burned publically in France, people claimed they turned into wolves at night." God: "Must be a good way to rid the community of the world enemies, they must have received the justice they never gave to their own enemies, then their heads just fell off after they yelled: divide and conquer the enemy, conquer and divide the land! Is this what you came to talk about? Barbarism?" Son: "Was it Schwarzenegger who said: CONQUER AND DIVIDE THE LAND, TELL THE ENEMY THE TANK GOVERNMENT IS HERE!" Tarzan swang in with a loud yelling, then he jumped off the rope. Son: "What is that sound? I hear something behind us in the trees."

"The USA requires carrying criminal records. Its no stupidity. America and his wanted signs, but hey yo, the nigger is in the barn."

Conclusion: There is a World War III, Bush is Hitler and Americans are brainwashed into fascism.

End of Part One

Part 2:

After a ballet dance involving Tarzan and female ballet dancers and some classical music, God is reading and his Son talks to him.

God: So what happened to the black man on the cucumber farm? He went to Europe?

Son: He has been secretly collecting money all his life. After he ran off from the farm, he was sought by with dogs, but he managed to escape. He made it to the East Coast, and there he met some pirates who were heading to Europe. They accepted his money. But they did not turn out to be ordinary pirates. They were cannibals.

God: I see.

American Pirate: "Hey, our nigger is hiding in the barn with the animals. Get out of my way Euro pean."

European Pirate: "Why should I get out of your way, chances are unilateral toop fash, you voted for Bish. Run your fascist anger on some other Euro Pean."

Coup d'état

Coup d'état

American Pirate: "He is dirtying our barn. Who let him on our boat? A black man is bad luck. He is a symptom of those that don't follow rules, have little respect for social norms, and trod on the rules of polite society..."

The Captain walked by and walked away after a comment: "I see a nigger is hiding in our barn."

American Pirate: He is dirtying our barn. He can't stay here."

European: "He doesn't follow the rules of a polite society? Sounds much like yourself. You break the rules to suit your personal ends. You intentionally flame. Funny how you and Bish are much the same. Perhaps why you feel you have to vent, so that someone can help you see it. Let's see if the captain can help you see how much like Bish you are on this boat.

American Pirate: "Oh, I can see that you are not black, it shows. You are just insignificant, cause. A world war troll on the boat is not of the consequence of the Captain you fool, you can't tell me what to do, even if there would be a world war, it is not anybody's business, go to a World War, Noose Pirate."

European: Noose Pirate? I am not a human rights activist, if that's what you mean. I am a lifetime dissident and peace activist, on a journey to Europe.

"I am a Cannibal. I eat people. The only reason I can eat people, is because there is a level between us and the society. I am going to eat the black man, cause there is a situ in here for piracy money, but I ain't an American advocate like you. I need to eat."

American Pirate: "What are you saying? I eat advocates. Only one nation believes that World War would be in the benefit of character, the American Nation, who believes in ratifying the world under federalism united by the local Gods of all regions, a cultural value of unification, as all strength lays in World Unification Projects, as gurus of global security the mind perceives a ratification of cultures as one, as strong, from the eyes of the Moscow of Capitalism, no Washington of Communism, community spirit mixed with super power, unity is a must for all, and the job will be done, the world will be united as one, in whichever way it fortifies as a winning system. Disregarding that unity means fascism, a word unheard of in our century, I am a visionary, and I see two sticks put together symbolizing brotherhood of Germans, an eye for eye radical extremism symbolizing the future, an intelligence, as self-righteous, patronatic, Bish envisions our future as one, united by higher powers, federalisms, and the Stateless Wonder cries in sadness, and people won't listen to my visions."

Coup d'état

European Pirate: "People are crying everywhere, because there is War going on, by countries that do not even recognize that a civil war is when a country is split and there is a daily warfare, none the less EVER consider that there is a little world war already, where 80–90 percent of people thinking negatively of the each other, but in the USA all it matters is not to hear anybody ~complain~ in any form, a place where Democracy is blindly repressed, where people are TOUGHT that the world enemy will learn the will of this great Nation that is not at all aggressive, like in the dumb sense."

American Pirate: "See there was only one man who spoke up, and was arrested for making contempt, cause he spoke of the President and of war, that was me, I left the army, they called me a deserter. I was sentenced to spend the rest of my life in jail, but I am here, as some things are happening that are wrong, but in America nobody knows anything, ask anybody what is a New Direction for a country represents? They can see the slaves, but they don't get it what it means. Nothing, I mean nothing in this place has political meaning."

European Cannibal: "What unites us as Cannibals is that we see, and there is a level. And if he in the barn does not prove he sees, we will eat him."

American Cannibal: "Anything, all we see is a nigger running away from a military-minded white farm boss, and now dirtying this boat with his heroism."

European Cannibal: "We will find a way to communicate with him one day as people. Ask him who do the streets belong to? He will say: to the taxpayers, to the white farmers and not to the people, because its about dues and respect. The mafia has an imberidested instuiastion for dues to be paid. The dues are told and collected at all times, the mafia prevails as many."

American cannibal popped open a wine bottle and said:

For the Soviet Union of Capitalism! European Cannibal: "It is the mafia that enjoys supremacy and dues, sets unilateral conditions of what?"

American Cannibal: "the Suviet Union of Capitalism. It is the future."

European Cannibal continued: "and represses all political opponents like a dictatorialshio, a dictatorialship blindly served, as mafia even if it wrongly teaches the one and only solution of maintaining corruption and remain in power."

American Cannibal and the European cannibal headed down the stairs to see the black man.

American Cannibal on the way: "Psychological regression of power, imberidested within, the department is always right. There can be no arguments in an imperialism. Psychological regression, the world enemy is imberidested in who are NOT with us in power over the world enemy, an empire is not about quitting. It is a unilateral forge. Domination, military in 110 countries and beyond, there can be no arguments on who is and who is not! Germany will never operate in the United States! Who heard of such a think The United States will operate in Germany and everywhere!... You listen! You dirty my barn!"

Black man: "I paid for this ride, I should not thank you, and thus, there is a difference, one of a man, one that is, of, as. Declared, as a difference, of as. I am black. You are mad. I am a free passanger on this boat."

American Cannibal: "You think this is a Dictatorial ship?"

Black man: "No, this is a pirate ship."

Dining room. Men walk in.

Captain: "A lunch special, made of a pig, served on a hendheld boat, fabricated by cannibals, called Googer Dicta. Served with swords on the table. On this boat, a black man, his mouth tied shut. Does he see from behind those panicking eyes? Let's celebrate our trip to Europe, and find out the truth about Attila the Hun."

Sombody removed the mouth cover from the black man's mouth.

The black man yelled up: "You are monsters! Animals!"

Captain: "That is incorrect. We are not animals. We are sorry to inform you, but you are severely mistaking in your judgment. We are not really pirates. Pirates are disgusting animals who rob, rape, kill and steal. We are cannibals. We eat people. We are not bound to our societies, we are not hanging out in ports with criminals. We have chosen to pursue a lifetime dissidentry, to see the world and to live peace activists. The only reason we can eat people, is because there is a level. A level. A level means, we just eat you, we will serve you, we will prepare our food. Just look at the hand made boat beneath you. It was hand made from freshly picked lumber. We will keep the boat as a memory. Are the swords prepared for the lunch? Let's all sit down.

The black man watched as the men sat down as nothing was less normal, picked up their swords, and the captain moved with a large sword to cut a slice from the black man.

Black man: "Before you eat me, can I just ask one question? Where is this boat heading?"

Coup d'état

Coup d'état

Captain: "That is a very good question. We are heading to Buda, in Hungary. We were planning to discuss the Huns during dinner."

Black man: "And I have another question. Who is this President Bish that you were talking about?"

European Pirate: "Bush has been yelling so much he is losing his voice and his balls are shrinking."

The men laughed up.

Captain: "Well, if you must know, as I mentioned, we are cannibals because there is a level. Our great Cannibal Frater has invented a time machine. He went there and told us that there in the 21st century is a great America and the UK that are now delved with criminal wars and world belching in regards to masculine interests of a racist mind."

European Cannibal: "Somewhat like the ultimate fascism were the Romans were wearing flowers as soldiers. All Roman military soldiers kept male lovers as a custom. It was an empire of world power, the slaves rowed their war ships. Italians were the world's strongest military until the fifth century when Attila the Hun arrived from Asia with an army of 700 thousand, clearly a large army for the time. The well organized Romans were surprised by the barbaric army of the Huns. Huns rode their horses athletically, and with ease beat the already weakening Roman faggots."

Cannibal Frater:

I did find a weakening homophobic USA. And I am Hungarian.

American Cannibal: "A weakening homophobic USA? Hahahahaha. Hahahahahahaha. And who says that? A sentimental Cannibal who is not gay?"

Cannibal Frater: "Shut up. I eat people as a Cannibal, as a barbarian? So what."

American Cannibal: "Just shut up, he is telling us a story."

European Cannibal: "Arrows from all directions, arrows of time, arrows into the deadly Roman body. He falls on his knees, as all empires rise and fall. He rose as a regime to fight and die. Turned into an empire from one of the world's most loved countries into an utter humanitarian end where now 80–90 percent of Arabs and the world think negatively of Romans, the very concept of a barbaric empire to be exclusive, while in the past once things were more positive. Reality sets in as a political suicide, a grandiose war, the final arrow ended his racist supremacy. He falls. (The European Cannibal imitated the moment.) In the last moment his gay boyfriend runs to him crying. He is still alive. A man steps down a horse. The Roman and his gay boyfriend look up to the man."

Coup d'état

His skin is harsh. His eyes are slightly wide. The Roman man asks: "Who are you?" The man responds: "We are stateless, peaceful nomadic people, and you are the embodiment of the perfect state and power, empire, imperialism. We are opposites." The Roman said his final curse: "One day you will have a King like any other, and you will live for the citizenry and pay your dues. Your face will look white, your skin will be smooth, and you will keep boyfriends on the side. You can't escape evolution. Even though (caughing up blood) you beat our army and country, you will become just like us one day, a power of expansion, slavery and liberal homosexuality." The Roman's head dropped."

The cannibals clapped at the performance.

Cannibal Frater: "Hungary did settle down, St. Stephen around 1000AD was erected as King to protect the land. The Huns split, one part stayed, one part decided to move on. That other part too settled down and established Finland. Later the Turks occupied Hungary for centuries, and the current Hungarian language has the exact same grammar as the Turkish and to a foreigners ears, the two may sound just the same language, though, homosexuality never gained much popularity, as the fallen Roman man said in his final words of cursing. Hungarians to today look down on homosexuals. The first country in the world to have a zoo, subway, and though the telephone is an American invention, Hungary had the first telephone system in use in the world. After loosing two-thirds of the country, the most battered country after the Austro-Hungarian empire connection with the Germans making a tie with Hitler, a sad little country with an incredibly rich culture remained, though further cursed by the Soviets for decades."

Captain: "Meanwhile the USA has become a raid country, the Soviet Union of Capitalism operating militarily in 110 countries. Seeking world domination, the picture is that the USA would not allow operations in the USA by the Germans, but expects an infinite relationship with the world on basis of political supremacy and regime that has interests in converting the world to its policies. The USA has been arrogantly violating human rights worldwide with its arrogant regime represented by Bush, and been trying to erect Iraq as a model country for the (new) Arab world, in other words a racist invasion based on a vision of a model country that is better than Arabs. An illegal supremacy that not many can do anything in regards politically to warn the United States of an escalating negative opinion that now includes 80-90 percent of Arab people and the rest of the World. President Bush does not see a problem with a 1940's regime philosophy of cold regimes and seeks to build up a stronger military presence in Iraq. Speaking of the devil Hungary, I am hungry!"

Son: "These Cannibals in the 17th century solved dark energy and traveled to the 21st century by warping time and space."

God: "Hmm. Is that so? And the black man turned out to be an Arab gene."

Son: "Yes father. When the Cannibals sunk the swords into his body, he disappeared. Why?"

God: "He was a wallwalker. He can turn invisible and walk through walls."

Son: "A wallwalker?"
