"Google archives everybody". Psycho-cults like Scientology take control of their followers' lives, moves followers inside their bases where they built their own society. Their workers get $20 a month for basic needs and wear white robes as they work 16 hours a day, 7 days a week. They even established their own prison where those misbehaving get to. Foreigners who arrive to Florida and join scientology have their passports taken. They lose their rights and are not part of the outside world. Scientologists call those who are not Scientologists "outsiders".

I knew two guys from Hungary who joined Scientology. They had their passports taken and they were locked up in a room for two weeks when one of them accidentally found a cell phone. He called the Hungarian ambassador and me, and he had to be rescued by the help of the ambassador who threatened them of their rights to take away people's passports. The two guys were in the middle of the ocean in on old ship and kept locked up. The ship was forced to return to shore and surrender their captors. The two guys were forced to sign papers that nothing was out of the ordinary during their hollyday trip on a Scientology-owned trip and everything is merely in their minds.

Everything is merely in one's mind when he speaks of Google or Bush.
