What would you do to stop wasteful government spending in Washington?

Hard line has an interest to Stalin-like force work and support the work with a force, a work force that puts private interests at the top more important (American-like Presidential, signifying importance and non-compromize). Hitler was the biggest job maker, Bush is a fascist, a big spender and assembler in the name of police-America, radically erects other countries as models for races. This guy is a big spender, and carelessly speaks of capitalist patronism with a military that accepts nothing but a win, a brainwashed dude, expecting for all to pay the dues to the King and shut up (he is a Hitler). Wasteful is all him (Stalin knew what power meant). Move away from a power addiction, as an addiction to wars and agendas (big government).

There is no hope, nor cure to large countries with regime mentalities wanting to play world's biggest with the most success all should pay dues to and accept as ruler in a black and white world of offensive biggots who were never raised and only know religious extremism as their means of power, give them a burning cross, the kkk is where one finds it among their racist wars and their inclination to police-America, mob over town and politics as in some places in Mexico and as was the case in the 1930's Colorado when the kkk took over all of the Sheriff's and political offices in the state. Only one town, Colorado Springs resisted in a racist supremacist political domination that is only interested in harrassing blacks and foreigners. Italians drank wine and made their own wine, and therefore did not show respect to the fascist community. It was supremacy the police, as today, knew who they serve and who they beat and arrest, upon the slightest disrespect. Black people were not allowed to sit on a tram or bus. It was about the respect toward those who are the higher citizens of this place, and as that they claim supremacy and status of all matters of state, education, politics. A place so colony-like, in many ways as today in the Arab world, police-America takes no chance in leaving from Iraq. Iraqis never killed Americans before Bush went there in the name of war on terrorism, but now the white American says: But if we leave now, the terrorists will come, and they did say it. So one conspires, then refuses to leave. Conspires that they have terrorists, then prove nothing, and stay forever like leaving from Germany. Germans got rid of the Russians. But the other one is an insisting power-maniac of a regime that must apply it's police-America above all social political issues, but the world turned away from the USA. Now 80-90 percent of Arabs think negatively of Americans, while in the past Arabs thought positively of Americans. The USA has gone from one of the world's most popular countries to the most hated one. Racism that erects (erects, Roman Model Democracy style) a model country for the Arab race. Bush sits as a supremacist with a racist war in his hand, with a cultural crimes against humanity involving a remodeling project like Ceausescu's whose primary interest was also big government and secret police over matters of public. Bush now listens to all phone calls in the world, by all means a big government that went fascist police all over the world and uses terrorism for it's interests. Bush used 9/11 to get Saddam. Bush uses terrorism, and blackmails all people. Bush asks: Are you with Saddam and the terrorists, or with the president, are you a flip flopper like Saddam, or with the country. He gave no Democratic choice, put everyone to his knees and forced supremacy on the USA to get what he wants and one of those things is to get Iraq, the world's second largest oil country and convert it to a model country he sees Germany in Europe or Japan in Asia out of Iraq, as Iraq has a potential asset for richness. But it is a racist fascist propaganda whose crimes against humanity is similar to Ceausescu's expectations on who is the boss in power and what can and cannot be compromised in regards to a system of power that hails police and erects itself over matters of crime as a non-negotiating strongholders of political power, similar to the KKK held power over matters of politics in the 1930's Colorado. A power of police sentiment. Schwarzenegger refused to refute the death sentence of a man whose writings in jail were nominated for the Nobel Prize. Schwarzenegger claimed the man did not show remorse for his crimes to the victims of the families.

In reality, she who is raped, the last she wants is for the rapist to come and make up. But Schwarzenegger expects prisoners to suffer and 'cry' for their crimes. This is the exact prison abuse mentality in the USA driven by revenge, it is barbarism. Schwarzenegger's home town in Austria called Schwarzenegger's decision barbaric and renamed a stadium they named after Schwarzenegger. After this event Schwarzenegger canceled his planned trip to his home town. The klan of power hailing police-America and brutal revenge on crime, a street fascism that klan-like serves the interest of a supremacist race, when Schwarzenegger was asked if he is fascist, he said when he was young he once chased skinheads away in the street with his bodybuilder friends.

In Orwell's factory, the money goes to the military, a military knows only winning, and people are silenced by a big brother who feeds thoughts endlessly toward a better future, toward the future of the children who generations later will come and thank the great leader's (classical dictator's logic) investment that does not take no as an answer and as that, unilaterally represents a big government that turns toward the international arena and plays big brother and conspires.

In other countries those who conspire are removed from power, just one is enough, but this is not another country, it is not even a country any more but a regime operating in 110 countries militarily with a declaration to win a world war, while not noticing a world war, not even a civil war in Iraq. The country is split, and there is daily warfare that caused 40 thousand deaths last year and growing.

Always living in the military world, always feeding fear, the perfect dictatorship that turned everybody away – as once what remained in the never–ending–story... there was life. The military dictatorship spends all money on military projects. I would stop wasteful government spending by making everybody read this.

It is by all means fascism that most fear from Bush's America, there were two world wars because of fascist sentiment, the world is sickened from big government corruptions. In other countries presidents who conspire are removed (pick one).

I prefer finding a real Cannibal and having Bush eaten live on TV. Its the perfect ending of this drama. The President is eaten by a Cannibal. I live in a film, not in a world. And after he is eaten, the terrorists will be shocked that the execution was not civilized.

A country cannot take terrorists as equal proponents. Hello. Terrorists will not win war on terrorism? How low can it get? Osama did not attack the USA with the whole Arab world, as Timothy McVeigh did not attack the USA with the whole American world... A country cannot take terrorists as equal proponents. That's what it means you can't negotiate with terrorists. Why the insanity? Well give him a burning cross, the KKK is where one finds it, in this case in the bottom of a Cannibal's fridge.

Low and cold, nice and red, maybe even the President who loves wars would enjoy a New Direction of style, not European Q–zeen, but an American invention on following Hitler in regards to racial enemies and insisting in being Americans in a movement of change in regards to not being easy going but very strict and reflecting that strength of will and eating humans, and teaching kids to be scared of Americans who listen to all phone calls in the world, because the police–America must be violent and we must accept the things Bush says, that violence is what Americans have to fight for, that terrorists will not win war on terrorism, that Osama attacked with the whole Arab race and Iraq must learn that to fight terrorism is to turn all Arabs against Americans. Now 80–90 percent of Arabs thing negatively of Americans, if that was the idea, Bush won. Now all Arabs are in fear, and the whole world is in fear, snitch people from other countries and leave them without access to lawyers for years in Guantanamo Bay. My own friend was snitched in Hungary, he was just joking on the Internet, just typing around and at 2:00am, a black car took him away at night from his home. He apparently typed a valid login and password to a government site, but my friend said he was drinking beer and was at some site and randomly entered a name like Smith and a password and got in. He is in Guantanamo Bay today, he's been there for 15 years without a lawyer. He was a Hungarian college student when he was taken at night in Hungary and never seen again. The Hungarian police got involved when they took him, a refused arrest and was screaming for help when he was being taken by Feds, and one of the neighbors called the police and the police told the Feds that they cannot arrest Hungarian citizens. There was a shootout, the Feds killed the two Hungarian cops, and took off. Communism just was over, it was in the early 90's. This guy had nothing to do with any organization, he was a computer hacker, a student and hacked when he was drunk, he was just discovering the Internet Explorer. I too once received a call by the CIA, I wrote about World War III online, and they called me that I made agents nervous by speaking of World War III, and they thought I must be a terrorist, because they took my warning for a World War III seriously. No joke. This was just before the time when Bush went to Iraq, and the internet was watched, as all phone calls in the USA were listened to (everybody knew that, MCI alone had 50000 agents assigned dedicated to the government for ability to listen in to any calls, and agents recorded any calls that mentioned keywords on their paper. Drugs, and who knows what. A violation of the streets, the streets belong to the people, and cameras on the streets are Ceausescu's world, it is what Bush is doing today in the whole world, building a big government and having no sense of history or humanity, but always wanting police-America and no borders for American interests, snitching people with black cars for minor things, and like in Pinochet's era, repressing all political opponents by means of force. 1st Lt. Ehren Watada was jailed 6-8 years for making contempt toward other officials by speaking of the President of the President's Iraq war. This war is racist, yet speaking of it is not allowed. Those making General concerns are arrested, those making Republican concerns are not arrested. Soros tried to speak of a one-sided force that represses Democracy, but nobody understood him.

Hey, police-America, stemming in culture to a long line of racism and kkk in politics has its own conservative side. Give Bush a burning cross, the kkk is where one finds it, and the rest of the world does not have that long history of supremacy, the entire USA is based on a religious supremacist model, one that makes kids in school say words of religious extremist brainwash with unity under a regional God, and not see how supremacist the whole thing is, how sadly white.

In other countries presidents who conspire are removed, but here it is that white power that holds Bush in power. Racism and a radical police-America is what so blindly erects a model of Iraq that is better than Arabs and not see the crime of a supremacist mind of big government corruption and racism, one that conspires with radical extremism and police-America, and as that, religiously takes advantage of terrorism, a Washington conspiracy of radical power that never ends.

Religious Extremism

So what would one do to stop wasteful government spending in Washington? Yes, stop radical extremism, one that has a high budget. Stop it by speaking of it, stop it by education, something Soros was famous for in promoting: it is called teaching about Democracy, one that here is only symbolic, misunderstood, repressed by a political power. And teach about Cannibalism as an alternative to executions, that police—America needs to accept cannibals and give them a job in the prison systems and make TV shows for high ratings televising executions, but never sex topics, only religious violence.

(I am not a human rights activist, I am a cannibal. The only reason I can eat people is because there is a level. I am however a lifetime dissident and peace activist.)
