This is a lot more complex than the Summa Cum Laude Windows OS thesis I wrote in 1989 and graduated at an early age. That was easy to write a Windows OS.

That's what actually, you face a little actual diploma work that is based on laws of human rights and not based on Ceausescu namecalling disorders of government police.

Crimes against humanity for humanitarian repression, ku klux klan discrimination, slavery, for saying you see me as money.

Crimes against humanity.

"I see you as money, and I can do whatever the want. You're mine."

Slavery, discrimination is recognized worldwide as crimes against humanity.

A bad American quality as well.

Welcome to the USA?

Good bye USA.

Bush acting as a dictator is another matter as joking.

Google going too far in profiling and discrimination and running a company with robbery and theft of arts and humanities is another matter.

My psycho (2 of them) running hate pages on me for years is another matter.

Life can be hard, but the thesis is complete.

It's not for the black hole, or whatever I do in my private life. You have to understand without Quick Understanding institutes.

Am I an asshole if I actually solved black holes? Would Einstein be an asshole if he would be here feeling discriminated, tortured, and feeling disturbed from personal stalking?

Would he still solve the black holes? He complained a lot in his letters about Hitler, discrimination, blind powers taking all power into their hands and not seeing today that politics is to avoid 80–90 percent of Arabs to think negatively of Americans today as a result of the Iraq war.

Guess what. This is a thesis.

And my film project on my web page reflects our time through Borat. Only a few perthent of the matherial remained from my ideas originally, but stalkers nightmare every word and every thought in terms of 'how dare he speak of Google'?

I can protest against Google, I can protest against Bush.

In 2003 it was not possible to speak of the President in Colorado, and a school teacher was sued for indescency to have her 'he is not my president' pin removed. She lost in court and could not wear that pin. She was from the educated side of things.

Only in 2006 did a formal opposition arise by the New Direction just on the week in November when 1st Lt. Ehren Watada was jailed. He was originally arrested for indescency and for making contempt toward other officials by daring to speak of Bush and of the Iraq war. In court considering the awakening side of the situation when asked if Ehren would go to Iraq he said no, so he was jailed 6–8 years as a deserter. Ehren said he joined the army and had no opposition to go to Iraq until this incident.
