This is a lot more complex than the Summa Cum Laude Windows OS thesis I wrote in 1989 and graduated at an early age. That was easy to write a Windows OS.

That's what actually, you face a little actual diploma work that is based on laws of human rights and not based on Ceausescu namecalling disorders of government police.

Crimes against humanity for humanitarian repression, ku klux klan discrimination, slavery, for saying you see me as money.

Crimes against humanity.

"I see you as money, and I can do whatever the want. You're mine."

Slavery, discrimination is recognized worldwide as crimes against humanity.

A bad American quality as well.

Welcome to the USA?

Good bye USA.

Bush acting as a dictator is another matter as joking.

Google going too far in profiling and discrimination and running a company with robbery and theft of arts and humanities is another matter.

My psycho (2 of them) running hate pages on me for years is another matter.

Life can be hard, but the thesis is complete.
