Re: I am a telesadist

A regime like the CCCP, where only 1st class citizens had priorities in life, today a credit report is used in Colorado to get a job, only perfect 1st class citizens can get a job. 40 percent Americans who are uninsured, better die and not come close to big brother land, cruising is forbidden, only purpose driving.

All I mentioned in the letter in 2003 was that I don't feel the Welcome to the Pride of Colorado was appropriate. I didn't say that 97 percent of this city is white. I didn't say that Americans at my work themselves warned me before I moved here: good luck, my primary concern in the letter was on the fact that this is not a gated community, but this official city has one community rule, and this city as most has an owner that nobody knows about who sets a community rule as if this was a gated community on all people as if this place is privately owned.
