The American Pride is not falling.

Psychos rule (over other's lives), rulers dictate (duh), dictators only invest in matters of government security and run a regime.

Bush too runs a regime (Capitalist), and corruptions can happen as with the dictatorial aspects of this regime, he perceived a unilateral status (as ruler), and as that psycho (Hitler who degrades entire cultures, races for his success).

The question is: Can Iraq be erected as a model country for all Arab countries, basically saying that those other countries are lesser, and unliked (discrimination, violation of cultural sovereignty through a dictatorial prospect), and in return 80–90 percent of Arabs think negatively of Americans (racism, crime, corruption to turn against an entire race practically for Osama's crimes, violate an entire region for the West's supremacy). It is a racist war, based on intolerance, and this intolerance can be seen in Texas as a regime that through the riot police wearing black riot-wear and riot helmets fill the streets on Friday when young people gather for parties. Intolerance, an atmosphere of a dictatorship, and Colorado itself is high on aspects such as no cruising is allowed in the city of Highlands Ranch, only purpose driving. Racial intolerance is heightened and the streets controlled.

Freedom of speech, an American quality is robbed, people are watched by big brother inside bars and arrested in Texas inside bars for the slightest worry. Security becomes everything, as under Ceausescu who sat in his office, wrote, while on the hall men stood without motion by the walls. When a government only practices aspects of security, it is pretty much a dictatorship.

It reached the limit Senator.

In 2003 when I wrote a simple letter to the city of Highlands Ranch with negative opinions, the CIA was all over me. In 2003 it was not possible to talk of Bush (and the same aspects got 1st Lt. Ehren Watada hailed). A teacher in Highlands Ranch in 2003 was ordered to have her 'he is not my president' pin removed for indecency, the same indescency that couldn't tolerate 1st Lt. Ehren Watada to speak of the President. This indescency is based on intolerance seen in Texas (fascism). Given the circumstances Ehren said he would not go to Iraq so he was jailed as a deserter, but he made a public announcement on Yahoo that he went to the military because he wanted to go to Iraq, but it was the circumstances that came out this way. Basically he was discriminated by a one-sided aspect of the government that takes opinions only from one side as heroism (serving the president), and not the humanitarian side.

Telephone sadist, Hallo, is the USA falling?

An imaginary man from India says sarcastically (this may not make sense at first):

"I want movement against one individual in the city to disconnect his telephone from access to city.

I win movement of intolerance like Texas to keep big brother in power.

I want his access to this city gone."

So I wrote, in Texas riot police in black wear riot helmet on Friday nights when young people go out, like a regime signify intolerance. People arrested inside bars as prevention (big brother). All become prevention society to a standard ethics that hate fun, that hate those who hate big brother. Black and white society of police in power. Like in the 1930's when police kept all aspects of religious rights. At the time the KKK took over all Sheriff and political offices, basically a mob in power, the occult radical extreme bringing back the old no drink, no eat, only vote, only go church, no disobedience of any kind.

No people in the street. No cruising like in my town in Colorado. Only purpose driving. Friends who get together and want to go out driving arrested for cruising in big brother land.

Once upon a time I got death threats for this kind of talk online, only in 2003 it was no talk of Bush online, no talk of Bush anywhere. So repeating, a school teacher in Highlands Ranch was forced to remove her 'he is not my president' pin at school for indescency. She was one of the more educated people.

In days of slavery the situation was the same. (this is very important to see that aspects of slavery applied toward another race, aspects from 19th century USA, for example a very strong military mentality applied over an Indian village in Colorado where it was claimed that one Indian man raped a white woman and the entire Indian village, women, kids were slaughtered down, heads decapitated by the so called civilized white people). So some things did not change much in mentality since the days of slavery, a group, I might call the occult are overly sensitive and act unilaterally and militarily over matters that violate the national pride.

Chronic big brother saught all power and politics took attention from human psychology matters of who is citizen and who is not. Citizen power ruled (through guns). Again, the CIA was all over me in 2003 when I wrote a simple letter to the city I live in about some things I didn't like. I was a national threat in a country, where the government was unable to distinguish between me expressing a simple disagreement in a letter to the city with terrorism suspects. A big government has it's conserved and highly frigtened security side toward everything like today in Texas.

The president is running a national threat business (with no talk). It was no talk of Bush either, he is the president. He is the man of security.

Third time, 1st Lt. Ehren Watada was arrested for indescency and for making contempt toward other officials as he dared to speak of the President and of the Iraq war, but those who praise Republican black and white are hailed and they make only good for the country (whatever foreign accent implied). When confronted in court if he would go to Iraq, Ehren said he went to the military because he would go to Iraq, but, because of this problem, no. He got 6–8 years to figure out this is a repressive, manipulated model–powered one–directional society under an occult, a one directional politics like Pinochet that knows no other way than... the... regime. It is 1:30 am.

I want that person off the city telephones. -- big brother

That person, he doesn't follow the rules (and as that suspicious).

Look at him, he is a national threat like John Lennon whose following by big brother cars as he sings bad songs is a national responsibility. John Lennon found illegal wiretaps by the US government and sued the US government for illegal wiretapping. This was at a time when Nixon resigned for illegal wiretappings on Democratic opponents and turned out to run a dirty government.

Bush would never resign like Nixon.

Lets start counting. This is pure telesadism.

1. Politics is to avoid 80–90 percent of Arabs thinking negatively of Americans as a result of the Iraq war. Only big brother is cold enough to dictate. Without politics one finds Ceausescu who sat and wrote in his office, and outside in the hall stood men without motion by the walls. In an office where a man's sole place is described by security only, he is pretty much a dictator.

Telephone sadist, Hallo, is the USA falling?

Remember when Bush said to the world when 15 million people protested: "I respectfully deny, because the priority of the United States is security." Basically what this means is that compromising safety with racism is corruption, and corruption doesn't exist in a big government, it is all a matter of national security, a corrupt Washington where everybody expects the president to handle all national emergencies.

In the past according to a poll made by a Jewish political institute in Israel Arabs thought positively of Americans. Bush set conditions. He said: look Arabs, look French, look Russians, look all other Arab countries and he does it personally (like a dictator). But if Israel, a little country would have stayed in Lebanon weeks after it cleaned up terrorist camps, and stay preventatively under security measures, Israel would have been charged with racial cleansing.

Like a Nixon Administration, a Bush who set example of Iraq as model country for all Arabs, a country as Bush likes, better than Arabs for the crime of one, supremacy, his blatancy, it was taken with full security measure to degrade an entire race, basically a crime of Hitler. Corruption of the entire war in the face of humanity with a no back so a Hitler's 'the course will be taken to the end'. When somebody takes an entire race for the crime of one and blatantly handles it, though seemed like a big crime, basically discriminating through matters of crime, a Ceausescu system of government priority and higher interests (all government) defined by matters of national security, ignoring that racism escalated, as this is Washington, that Bush turned the USA into a country of non-compromise, a national security guy who turns John Lennon into a national threat and the same people sit in the government and would decline his visa as a strategic win to the United States if John Lennon would be singing today about the ugly side of this Iraq war (and not the Vietnam war). Peace and love, no countries, and hurting the ego of the occult militant radical power extremist who went and burned all Jesus albums, not seeing that these songs are nice. Just the radical extremism, the group since the 1930's KKK who feels they are the 1st class representatives of America, for what it stands, for the military ethics, for the, you know, the things that got 1st Lt. Ehren Watada.

And those who do not follow the rules (psycho), like John Lennon are enemies and are militarily and by national interests not appreciated. John Lennon was very open. When radical extremists all over the USA burned Beatles materials in large fires, John Lennon sitting with the said: They have the right to do anything they want and we have the right to not have anything to do with those people. This was after the Beatles said that they are bigger than Jesus.

No wonder my 280 page book I wrote began with a scene of my materials being burned by the KKK and me being held by the back of my hair, because I know the secret of the Bush administration.

An occult war over another race aiming to clense a race (illegal racist clensing).

It's the bullshit of big Washington that all importance lays on them, but the definition of security comes national priority is but is a dictatorship of a regime, I am getting tired, and those who do not belong are national threats (be it John Lennon from the Beatles). The Nixon Administration was a dirty government, Bush is an overkiller of national importance (him full precedence, human psychology is that under a spot light like in Washington things magnify 20 times and the world not seen, insider politics arise, but the world is very well seen, we are monkeys after all, we can be easily be closed away from all the spot light, a nature of old old old powers (by high power interests, by the facts present (by the high power interests), acting on behalf)).

Belonging, those who do not belong become national threats and suspects, arrested like 1st Lt. Ehren Watada, George Soros wrote of us and them, but decades of Washington policies set the world apart from ordinary diplomacy and politics. Just for the sake of interest I wrote in prior letters that Germany for example does not accept a stateless passport. I was stateless for 10 years without nationality to any country, it was my personal choice as I moved toward one nationality, lost the old nationality, then backed away from the one I would have gotten. Germany claims all people must belong (an old German mentality with a bit of black and white arrogance). They don't understand that a person can exist without a country. They really don't understand it as all people must belong as there is no other way to conduct diplomacy, so they decide over people in other countries that they must naturalize. You can't decide over people not here. They don't get it. But they dictate over that all people must have countries of birth and citizenship. People can do whatever they want, of course have to respect the laws of the country they are in.

They go crazy from that thought that somebody does not belong to a country, I have the experience that all Germans are offended by a man who has no nationality. I don't understand what's in their minds. What's it to them that I have no citizenship (instead of the American when I had the chance, I picked up the Hungarian some years ago since but live in the US. My wife chose to pick up the American citizenship and my parents are Americans for a long time and my kids were born in the US, so they are Americans too. I refused. I have nothing to do with big brother other than to prove it wrong and be here because of my family's preference).

FUCKING DISCONNECT HIS TELEPHONE LINE BECAUSE I DON'T LIKE THE WAY HE TALKS!

Why are people like that? What's it to the Germans that I have no country of citizenship? What's it to people not liking the way I talk on the phone and wanting to disconnect my phone line to the city? They feel they have nationalistic rights to do those things. What's it to Bush that there are terrorists in some countries? He seen one now he needs to, you know, pull their phone access and establish big brother.

Telephone sadist, Hallo, is the USA falling?

Big brother, everybody is scared of big brother, I too feel that I can be arrested for writing these things to you.

This is the world of nobody trusts one another.

because he says bad things, bad words that cannot be spoken on the telephone. This is not allowed for that kind of person to have a telephone in the first place, how can the CIA monitor you if you use that kinds of unrecognizable form of communication, there must be standards to telephone conversations. Everybody must know of this person. I am a citizen, I will prove and conduct every information gathering to prove he is not suitable for telephone use. He is a big theat, he is a national threat, he sits on the phone all day in not German form of acceptance. He does not shut up. He doesn't like our telephone company to watch all people he says. He is gonna have to be murdered. He likes to talk a lot, this telephone is not for him. This telephone is not for him. He must go to telephone school.

Here people follow rules, dial numbers, everything has to connect conducted so people can understand because of the way things are here. and must be to that purpose and some misusers of telephones need to be monitored.

we need to know if they break the law, because law breaking only means not liking big brother and is a national threat. Only one–two calls a day. Like the Internet Google limits 15 posts to usenet for 4 hours. There can be no indifference, no personality, no individuality. There must be only law and people must belong.

Google's limit 15 messages for 4 hours. That is plenty for anybody, and it is more, than anybody can ask to turn to the Internet.

But he is using the telephone all day. How can he do that? He is a telephone sadist. I am going to call his phone company and report this telephone sadist who does not pursue purpose driving.

Germans.

And it comes from stranger: It will come with consequence that you put down the telephone.

I will tell that you are a telephone abuser, a tele–sadist who speaks all the time on the phone, not limiting phone calls to two calls a day like most people.

Telephone sadist, Hallo, is the USA falling?

Must follow government way of thinking I guess, a square everything has it's place, I don't know, I don't understand Germans.

But anyway, is America falling? Can Texas allow a police and big brother mentality forever? When does it become a 'corruption of power'? Does it help if I say if a man in the government seat is only conducting matters of security that he is a dictator? Does this relate to the 15 million protesters worldwide whom Bush said he respectfully denies as security is the highest priority of the United States. When does corruption end and international friendship and politics begin? If you ask Bush, never.

The whole Iraq war is a corruption, I am sorry, it is, I am dumbified to even dare to speak. So much priorities. So much president. So much OTHER THINGS. So much illegal racism.
