It's not
funny,
because I have closed the door on a sect with 100
thousand
members.
All I did is portray I am
a hacker,
and they disappeared.

Was I there when they were closing their doors. I did refer to the FBI
a lot. As I approached this sect in Hong Kong, three times, they closed their business for a while the first and second time, and on the third time permanently. I claimed child terrorism, perhaps they were involved in child trafficking, they didn't want to mess with any authority.
They were gone.

I think it was the Chinese government intercepting the cyber communications.

I can't be so powerful. They were like babies, doing everything I told them.

Basically I talked to the sect owner directly through his computer's speakers.
He didn't dare to touch his computer and shut down the sect immediately.
I swear to God that was the story.

All he heard is FBI FBI with his Chinese ears.

Don't let me install my Windows OS that I wrote myself ever again.
