Flaws. Flaws are what schools teach us against.
Our flaws are filled
in.
I have a Summa Cum
Laude.

Part 2:

It is that way, that in parts of the world where people are tall, culture develops for tallness. Serbia has the world's tallest people, and basketball is part of their culture as among black people in the United States. Characteristics of the body shape culture.

Neanderthals, our brother species who separated from homo sapiens 700 thousand years ago had large muscular body characteristics and they worshipped facing animals in a hand to hand wrestle. They died out around some 28 thousand years ago.
They had very similar back and neck injuries found among cowboys and bullfighters in the USA today.

where people are short, culture
develops for shortness, but more interestingly one sees extremes as the art of fat fighting among Sumo wrestlers.
Fat people are not found to be wrestlers or fighters in general, but Japanese culture introduced Judo and Sumo where overweight people learn to utilize their excess weight as a form of martial arts.

One of my questions in this book is to try and predict how body characteristics can change in the next one million years, and arriving to a special 6 meter tall women who is a professional swimmer, and of course wins all swimming championships.

Ok, let's stop for a moment. It turns out for some, who proclaim themselves
perfect, they turn out to be none other than psychotic terrorists. To degrade
one another and profit with blackheart off a deliberately scummed
humanity.
What do they do? They proclaim as Kings, then engage in simple labeling
and terrorizing in an ignited rage of attack, look down on what seems to be him and the enemies as a class, but the enemy can arise anywhere,
and the claims seem to be of an unrecognized nature and unrecognized power beneath those claims, a pursuit of barbarism, pains induced, a man is seen hurting, molesting someones with radical extremism
spilling from his mouth and he proclaims over and over that he is perfect and the situation should be believed. What do people believe, the molested or the molestor? In case the molested is a dictator like Saddam, crowds
barbarically bow that yes, such claims are of greatness, others say history has seen such barbaric erection in days of World War II where a King proclaims supremacy, and those part of the cult apparently must agree that what the King chooses must be accepted. And the opposition party discovers a must walk the line and drop the vote aspect and sits for no reason with a gas mask when alone.

And here I am, facing a virtual psychopath, everybody is handed an enemy.
George Soros wrote a letter to millions of Americans about us and them, so we all sit down on two sides with virtual enemies. Normally it would not even be worth it, but there he is stalking me with claims of pervasion, and here I am, not caring. What he says is based on the idea that there is a fascist police and a force as that, a force in itself of making trouble and following people, where I am to be followed, and him, collecting all information on me and reporting me where all beurocracy is on his side and there can be no opposition to any of the words he says under the aspect of power being most important in the world and the people who earned insider access being the world's most important and most successful thing imaginable, to be welcomed in and not left out of the common place, where people and government are alike in unity and unity is what holds the world together. As for me, I am to be named a shlime, and him great, and that relation is set into action, written into blood, and accepted in greatest knighly silence, where on is in and there can be no out after that. Basically I am talking about a mafia. The relation is of acception and non-exception to the world of policies.

Yes, basically mafia and revenge. What else does one think of when seeing revenge, the elements of eye for eye arising, the means to eliminate an enemy. Information collected and revenge is saught beurocratically, teminatingly, provingly to a certain audience who fascists alike on such claims. Claims and words driven by a model empire. In a model empire the streets are clean. Fascists rule in such a world where those leaving dirt in this ideal world are extremely punished. So dirt is saught, but dirt is all he finds in a man's life with a Summa Cum Laude. Follows for excessive lengths, described dirt upon dirt in revenge, but finds no herds of masses who are ready to serve the feurer, so he decides to change his pervasiveness toward his enemy and applies dark and cruel forms of terrorism. Possessive tendencies of rape, possessive tendencies of threat, Booglebush, the threat psycho arose face to face, to terminate me through greatest aggression, and create every breath of fear in the air, where he is a very dangerous man to mess with and as the most dangerous man a Summa Cum Laude should not be of any exception to all who do not dare to talk back. Criminal terrorism, as he has no other means of success, he wants fear and realization that he is crazy and could do anything and that as declared, he is running a war and will win, and again, the element of the importance of timing, referring to time as time is running out, meaning steps will be taken, so be ware. Booglebush, the threat psycho lives in Germany. Sure arrogance is plenty there, a way of life can become lifetime long engagements of threats upon threats found followed by a stalker, one who wants termination of the jew basically and life meaning declared the necessitated return of the Feurer whom in 1941 I would not find interesting in writing about but would take precaution as serious control addiction and a succeeded form of power practice, but in general the return of empires in history by representatives of that power, generally operating in severe forms of significances.

One of course spends a lot of time with a Summa Cum Laude simply being horrified of how cold some can be under prescribed law and order that they received from some mind control department and engage in stalking terrorism. How humans can throw all things away for one belief, in his case for fascism, and executing all jews, primarily one who reminds him of a hacker who he complained once about, a dangerous disgrumbled employee who left the office and broke in to the computer network of the company. When he approached me he had that hacker in his eyes, and persisted I am evil, and described me in all regards as that person he hates and sees in all his enemies. I have a Summa Cum Laude in computer science.
