The Space Shuttle Discovery was one of the operational spacecraft in the Space Shuttle fleet of NASA. It has an Orbiter Vehicle Designation of OV-103. It became the third operational orbiter, and is now the oldest orbiter in service.

Warplanes.com offers the Space Shuttle Discovery (Full Stack) model spacecraft. It has a span of 9.25 inches and length of 22 inches. It was a complete replica of the original spacecraft and it will be a perfect desktop display.
