Telepathology, looking.

I can hear his thoughts, his mumblings the Morning he posts.

A very rotten empty brain of absolute nonsense, but keeps seeking,

This is sad, because this is that sad pathetic case of the classic super-psycho collecting all things on another, all his life, emails, everything, like Google, want to know everything, the Gestapo department in the German era, but more like Ceausescu's famous terror secret government mixed in with the public. Everything is saught out to the feurer. Go figure, we were born on this mad planet, where Communism, Fascism, dictatorships fill the minds of these robots. I wrote an entire book in the past weeks: Manifesto about Aliens.
