The latest one I sighted:

``TAG UR IT!!!! this is so scary. send this to 15 people in the next 143 mins. when you are done press F6 and your crushes name will appear on the screen in big letters. this is scary cuz it works!!!! if you break the chain you will have problems with relationships."

It seems pretty feeble to me – but presumably it works.

It has a number of classical traits: the promise of a reward, a threat of punishment. However, heaven and damnation seem to have been replaced with a romantic theme.

Sorry – but I just had to post this: I have enough trouble with relationships as it is ;–)
