

sci.econ: Re: UNEMPLOYMENT rate in US tops Great Depression in new report ...

Re: UNEMPLOYMENT rate in US tops Great Depression in new report ...

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.econ/2004-06/0201.html>

From: john grove (jgrove24_at_hotmail.com)

Date: 06/06/04

Date: 6 Jun 2004 11:17:59 -0700

"John Fraude Kerry" <BigLoser@dnc.org> wrote in message news:<Mz5wc.41347$pt3.1735@attbi_s03>...
> The Unemployment Rate is LOWER than what it averaged during the 90's, so the > Democrats are looking REALLY stupid with their bullshit rhetoric about
> "worst since the Great Depression".
>
> Americans are laughing at the increasingly-hysterical Democrats.

Its a different story when 29 million working age adults are "not in the labor pool", thus not counted.

Also, an average of 700,000 layoffs during CHRISTMAS week in 2001, 2002 , 2003, re.
doleta.gov

Piles of Shruble from coast to coast.

JG.