Chicxulub meteorite. The reference is CURRENTLY in the site of the National Science Foundation, hence the inspiration.

In 100th St and in the newspaper. It MATCHES one pattern in my life imposed by others on me very credibly. I have the doubts! BUt it is either it was meant for me or they are ACTUALLY FORCING the pattern into existence to pretend to others that it MATCHES my experience. Am I being clear here? Some God said that X. The automatic followers will go and do X and then go back and ask for something in the name of X. I suffers the consequences. But maybe X was the utterance of somebody else? I dont want to be more specific. One policeman already heard my complaint...

I just had another ...experience... I wonder if it is all arranged or things are spontaneous and natural again... I dont think so, maybe yet another msytery added to the long list. I can only think of premature...
