If talent is taxed, it will disappear, sure as shit runs downhill. Why would anyone exhibit talent if it means he is punished for it?

Bob -- I generally agree with you on most things ... but I gotta call "shenanigans" on this one.

Income is taxed ... but jobs haven't disappeared.
Gas is taxed ... but folks still drive.
Alcohol is taxed ... but we still consume it.
Real estate is taxed ... but a lot of us still own homes
Smokes are taxed ... and I'm lighting one up now
Capital gains are taxed ... but folks still invest
A huge chunk of things people buy have sales taxes ... but we keep on buyin'
Estates are taxed ... but people keep on accumulatin'
