

onal and in keeping with the general ambience of the hotel. The valet, front desk, bell boy, security guard and the restaurant

Depending on the type of hotel and the nature of work that the staff is involved in, uniforms could be simply utilitarian or highly attractive or a combination of both. The staff that come in direct contact with the customer must have uniforms that are professional and in keeping with the general ambience of the hotel. The valet, front desk, bell boy, security guard and the restaurant staff should have the best in apparel as compared to the housekeeping and kitchen staff. The color of the uniform must not be too loud but attractive and elegant. An ideal hotel uniform would be one that is elegant and at the same time discreet in appearance.
