

Re: VOTE FOR BUSH!

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.electronics.design/2004-11/0681.html>

---

From: Steve Sands (hybridyne2000_at_yahoo.com)

Date: 11/02/04

Date: 1 Nov 2004 19:18:24 -0800

bill.sloman@ieee.org (Bill Sloman) wrote in message news:<7c584d27.0411010726.2bc93490@posting.google.com>...
> Jim Yanik <jyanik@abuse.gov.> wrote in message
news:<Xns9593D4DF4AC69jyanikkuanet@129.250.170.86>...
>> Paul Burridge <pb@notthisbit.osiris1.co.uk> wrote in >> news:jrq9o0dkdlpapro1ukibh5dpmpb4qr09ge@4ax.com:
>>
>>> It'd be a dull old world without him.
>>> ;->
>>
>> It wasn't dull with Clinton in office,nor with Carter in office.
>> The US gained respect after they were succeeded by Republicans.
>
> "Respect" implies approval and admiration. You seem to need a better > dictionary.
>
> What Dubbya seems to have won for the US is a place in the queue to be > prosecuted for a variety of war crimes, including a rather distasteful > series of violations of the Geneva convnetions concerning the > treatment of prisoners of war. I'd prefer not to have that kind of > "respect" myself.
>
> -----
> Bill Sloman, Nijmegen

War crimes? What a laugh. You pacifists make me wonder where we would all be if you were in control. If your type were dealing with Bin Laden or Saddam you would be the first to break out the K-Y.

War is not for the cowardly. It's real easy to sit back and just throw cheap cowardly insults at the president without the benefit of knowing the facts.