Walter said, "I want to write a contract..." That was what I was replying to.

My original reply also included this, which you might have missed...

Find one lawyer that both you and the other guy can trust, split the fees, and sit down with him so both of you can explain what you want the contract to cover and not cover. If the two of you can't work that out, then no contract, even one you write, will be worth the paper it's written on.
