Okay,

On behalf of the good folks in this group who have helped me with actual electronics issues, and are no doubt weary of this crap, I am walking away from this M$ crap.

Don't care what anyone reads into it, all it comes down to is the same shit, different year. Heard it all before, and having stated my opinions, there is nothing more to be gained by wasting anymore time on it. I'll read other's perspectives, so don't go thinking I am just ducking people's opinions, but there is nothing new here, and nothing more for me to say on the subject.

Thanks for sharing.

JB
