He has! He's created his own little private newsgroup. Guess he neglected to realize that newsgroups can be crossposted to, and apparently nobody's told him about majordomo mailing lists, yahoo mailing lists, yahoo BBSs, googlegroups private groups, wwwboard BBSs, BLOGs, or any of the other ways to put together a private, fully moderated group.

Oh, wait – he wants the WHOLE WORLD to see what Guy Macon has to say, without suffering the dreadful inconvenience of allowing other people to express their opinion.

Oh, well.

Cheers!
