Wow Jim. I can't believe you'd be so arrogant to insinuate the majority of the world's scientists are wrong and you're right.

Nope, arrogance is the "publish or perish" crowd putting out statements like "...the Earth's average surface temperature has risen by about 1 degree Fahrenheit in the past century..."

If you've progressed even 10% toward being any kind of a thinking engineer you'll realize what's wrong with that statement.

But you're ignorant, so what can I say ?:-)
