Or we could just nuke all of Europe, instead. Then there would be no more Euroweenies, and anti-American whining from the likes of you. IOW, a few dozen multi nuclear warhead missiles, and no more problems.

You'd get nuked back of course. A compelling reason for the UK to keep its independent deterrent.

So, its ok for some asshole in Europe to call for the death of everyone in the US, but not the opposite? Just what I thought. Just remember you are all crammed into tiny countries while we have lots of wide, open spaces.
