You don't know anything about me and shouldn't even be allowed to use the word "insight." Your so-called insight is faux.

Re: Increasing speed of Opamp used as Comparator

We know you like to use artsy-fartsy words like "faux."
Which leads us
to conjecture that you own at least one pair of black jeans.
And that you took the 9:14 train from Paddington Station.

That figures... Bloggs is a French Fairy ;-) Haha- I wear IZOD blue jeans because they are available for $15 at a seconds/defects outlet about four blocks from where I live, my shirts come from the same place- always long sleeved button downs. I buy my "footwear" at Wal-Mart, the latest in Chinese half-high work "boots"- which I wear until they completely disintegrate. No need for me to worry about style, I look good in anything:-)

Sno-o-o-o-ort ;-)

I love to cook with wine. Sometimes I even put it in the food.
