Who has that skippy syndrome, skippy terrell? LOL. It really would have been easier for you just to shut up, and skip the post if you were not interested. Unfortunately, for you, I am not gonna go away now.

Mmmm... Good! At least we'll have a little fun with you before you realize you're in way over your head and any of us can easily pull you under while you're dog-paddling for your life. And then we'll have even more fun as we watch you drown. Or swim away, as fast as you can, thankful that we let you go with your life.

Your stuck buddy. Wait for my next ebay auction. I think you will love it.

If it's for your death certificate I'm sure we all will.

Learn to spell, ya fuckin' maroon.
