I hate to sound a bit like MP, but FOR FUCKS SAKE, ARE YOU RETARDED OR WHAT?

at least 6-year-olds have a good excuse.

you have confirmed that you are not an engineer (not that engineers are necessarily better than non-engineers, I've met plenty of bad ones) and are in fact an HVAC tech.

Nope. You haven't been paying attention so who is retarded? I actually have two separate trade qualifications, some advanced trade qualifications, a degree and considerable experience in a number of strange technical or related fields.

Almost all of your posts have NOTHING whatsoever to do with electronics (I think there is a strong correlation here; it appears you dont know much about electronics, hence the lack of such posts), but are instead seriously inane attempts at insults, which most of us grew out of not long after developing pubic hair.

You may be a pussy who will let two dicks like Jim and John insult you. I am not.

If you have to hurl insults, at least try and think up clever ones, as opposed to making yourself look like a disgruntled 6-year-old.

I pitch my insults to the mentality of the targets.

GROW UP!

I am rubber. You are glue.
