Gave us:

A few months ago our built-in microwave
croaked.

Since we were already contemplating a kitchen re-do, we just bought a counter-top 1.5KW Panasonic as a temporary replacement...

for $ 119

In today's mail an offer of an extended service plan...

for $ 85

Re: OT: Hysterical Laugh of the Day

Do people fall for such schemes?

You're statistically WAY better off to just buy a new one.

MORE off topic BULLSHIT, jackass?

You're also an idiot since a GOOD MW oven can be had for less than $60.

$39, if all you do is "cook" instant mac 'n' cheese

The $119 buys you a full-sized, 1.5KW machine with "features" ;-) Big enough to cook Usenet Trolls, too! The only bad thing is that EPA permit you need to clean your microwave, after you've played "Nuke-A-Troll!". :(

Service to my country? Been there, Done that, and I've got my DD214 to prove it.
