Right, they sure will. The head political appointee will verbally take full responsibility, quit his post, and return to the private sector making 5x as much money...

You forgot that the appointee will also turn out to be a alcoholic drug abusing pervert who was abused as a child. I mean to say you've got to fit a rehab in there somewhere, hopefully funded by taxpayers.

I think you left out black, lesbian and whatever PC word they use these days for handicapped.

No these are republicans if it was democrats they would be a a black, lesbian hispanic with a "learning disability". With republicans it will be a white preacher that is secretly a homosexual child molester.
