How much do you want to bet that he was not ever approached by any LEO regarding his actions?

Or better, how much bet that he was offered a handshake and a pat on the back as opposed to an apprehension?

Apparently it happened a couple of months ago, so presumably we don't need to guess.

" The Reno police department has told krnv that Brossert will faces charges for theft if the store owner files a police report of what happened. "

Since it's a civil matter that figures. It's down to the store owner.

"Charges of theft" is not a civil matter.

Without a theft being reported, where's the crime ?
