How about we:

get the American people off the oil habit,

I think high prices will at least reduce consumption. ýIn fact it already has.

get public transportation working,

Bwahahahahaha! ýNot ALL of us are dumb enough to live in the high population density coastal regions of the US. ýMost public transportation is a political boondoggle.

Re: Drill Now for oil

get the millionaire oil executives out of our pockets,

Grow up and study what ROI means. Personally I think whatever business that you are in should be limited to 2% profit... I want all the rest ;-)
Get the picture yet?

get the car companies to fulfill the promise of economical cars,

That's happening. Notice how the Toyota Prius and like-type vehicle sales are booming... and truck and SUV plants are closing?

get the air breathable a
